Meeting to probe odor from drain

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

The unbearable stench emanating from Trouten Drain in Romulus has prompted residents and city and state officials to take a good hard look at the problem.

State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak has contacted several state and county health officials and urged them to join residents at a meeting at 10 a.m. this Friday at Thomas Coleman Center, 35351 Beverly Road, Romulus.

The meeting was called by Mahalak for the purpose of receiving complaints of residents on the Trouten Drain.

And in correspondence with several health officials, Mahalak blames Chemical Recovery Systems Co., 36345 Van Born Rd., Romulus, for causing "a hazardous situation" by dumping contaminants into the drain.

Invited by Mahalak to Friday's meeting are Dr. Howard Tanner, director of Dept. of Natural Resources (DNR); Dr. Maurice Dreizen, director of State Dept. of Public Health; Dr. Perry Stearns, director of Wayne County Health Dept.; and residents of the area.

"I believe that because of the matter of contaminants discharged by the Chemical Recovery Systems Co. into the Trouten Drain it may be causing a hazardous situation," Mahalak wrote Dr. Reizen.

In writing Tanner, Mahalak urged him to send DNR officials Thomas Leep and Pete Ollila "and anyone else in connection dealing with chemical pollutants finding its way into the Trouten Drain."

Leep and Ollila met in Mahalak's Lansing office May 11 for the purpose of setting up a field inspection which will take place Friday.

The Trouten Drain has caused problems for quite some time now.

Romulus Councilman Jimmie C. Raspberry spoke recently at a council meeting on the terrible odors coming from the drain and the many complaints he's received from residents. He said at the April 25 meeting that the council should send a resolution to the DNR to have them send a representative to answer questions about the stench coming from the Trouten Drain.

Mayor William M. Oakley agreed with Raspberry saying, "The Dept.

of Public Works was out last night (April 24) at 7:30 p.m. and again at 11 p.m."

Oakley further said that officials from Lansing were supposed to be in Romulus that morning to inspect the drain but had not arrived by noon.

Romulus DPW Director Dave Paul verified the problems connected with the drain. "The odor is pungent and just about unbearable when you get close to the water."

Paul also said the DNR was slow to respond.

"Our man took samples of the polluted water at 9 p.m. on April 24 and again at 7 a.m. on April 25. We called DNR and it was our understanding they would pick up the samples we took."

Paul said DNR has not shown up to this date to pick up the samples. "The drain has had a bad odor for years," he said.

Mahalak said he is hopeful his meeting Friday morning and the on-site field inspection will get to the root of the terrible odor so it can be corrected.

Trouten Drain is west of and runs parallel to Wayne Road in a southerly direction to Wayne Road, then goes in a southeasterly direction under Wayne Road and meanders through the city.

Relocation difficult

Vote to sell school; where do pupils go?

Two weeks ago the Romulus School Board voted to sell Romulus Elementary School, 11165 Olive St.

And at Monday night's meeting, board attorneys were scheduled to explain the board's options in selling the old building.

Supt. James Garfield sent the board a detailed memo of what all was involved if the school is sold.

The Romulus Elementary School currently houses the Headstart Program, Adult Education Offices, Special Education Offices and Alternative Education Offices.

Sale of the facility would necessitate the relocation of these units, Garfield said.

"The Headstart Program presents unique difficulties for relocation," his memo stated. "Approximately 120 children will be involved in the 1978-79 program taught and supervised by five teachers and five aides."

"A number of children are in the 'Home Start' component of the program and only three classrooms are required. However a suitable meal preparation and serving area (kitchen) is required along with a teacher work area."

"It is also desirable that the program be centrally located to encourage student enrollment, but also to hold down transportation costs."

Garfield stated that since this program consists primarily of three- and four-year-olds, the program should be located in its own facility or a facility housing children closest in age to the Headstarters.

None of the school district's existing buildings meet all these criteria, Garfield told the board. "The Adult Education Offices could be placed at the high school or South Junior High. These offices should be in a centrally located facility," Garfield's May 5 memo stated.

The superintendent said offices for Special Education would be more difficult to move elsewhere.

"Space for 12 to 15 staff plus adequate office, storage, and filing areas is required," he stated. "Additionally, the sensitive nature of the work requires these offices to be situated outside of a regular school setting."

"Furthermore, since the staff are itinerant and travel daily between buildings, it is best that they are housed in a central location. Only Harrison has enough available space to house Special Education."

Garfield estimated that if relocation were necessary, it would be best to place Adult Education at South Junior High, and Headstart, Special Education and Alternative Education at Harrison School.

"Major remodeling and equipment purchase costs would be incurred at Harrison," his memo pointed out. "Cost of transportation would increase significantly. Since the Federal government paid for the "New" mayor welcomed

Manistee Mayor Vickers C. Hansen thoroughly enjoyed the Mayor's Exchange Day in Romulus Monday. Starting off the day at city hall, Hansen was presented with a key to the city by Mayor Pro-tem Mary Ann Banks. City officials said

Hansen's tour of the city with his party stayed exactly on schedule and at one point was even 10 minutes ahead. The evening was capped with a Mayor's Exchange Dinner in the swimming pool area at Ramada Inn.

Manistee mayor city head for day

Dr. Vickers C. Hansen, the 40-year-old Mayor of Manistee, and his party were received in royal style Monday morning in Romulus and given a full day and evening of activity for Mayor's Exchange Day. Helping to roll out the red carpet at city hall for the visiting mayor were Mayor Pro-tem Mary Ann Banks and several other city officials.

Mrs. Banks presented Hansen, the son of a prominent retired doctor, with the key to the city while North Jr. High Band played "Hail To The Chief." The Civil Air Patrol cadets put on a precision drill show that captivated the guests from Manistee as well as other viewers.

Mayor Hansen said he was very happy to be in Romulus and looked forward to the day's events. After several presentations from department heads, Hansen was given a tour of city hall.

A tour of Romulus Senior Citizens Drop-in Center preceded an elegant luncheon at Squires Restaurant at Ramada Inn. Hansen, his entourage, and others then listened to a luncheon address given by Mrs. Beverly McAnally, former Mayor Pro-tem and a member of City Council.

Then followed a tour of Micro-Measurements and GM Detroit-Diesel Allison plants before a return to Ramada Inn to freshen up for the evening social time.

Set in the splendor of the swimming pool area, the social hour and Mayor's Exchange Dinner guests were entertained by Bramlett Brothers and Company.

The evening program was directed by Jay Young, Romulus public information officer, who was master of ceremonies. The invocation was given by The Rev. James J. Roberts of the Wesleyan Methodist Church and dinner was followed by remarks from Hansen.

Hansen expressed his appreciation for himself and his guests for the opportunity to visit Romulus and experience the gracious hospitality of his hosts.

Fred F. Nelson, an employee of the city of Romulus and an aspiring poet, recited another of his stirring poet creations.

Bradley Smith, an outstanding wrestler from University of Toledo, was guest of honor for the evening. Smith, who follows in the footsteps of John Long as a local inspiration to Romulus youth, was raised here and has had an outstanding wrestling record in bouts around the world.

Mrs. Banks ended the festivities with a few appropriate closing remarks to a Mayor's Exchange Day filled with activity and one that Vickers Hansen said he would long remember.

Band hails visiting mayor

Although visiting mayor Vickers C. Hansen enjoyed his full schedule in Romulus Monday during Mayor's Exchange Day, probably nothing pleased him more than the ceremonies heralding his arrival at city hall. Here Director Richard Kruse leads the junior high band in a stirring rendition of "Hail To The Chief" while Hansen and Mayor Pro-tem Mary Ann Banks look on. The Civil Air Patrol also pleased the audience with a precision drill during the opening ceremonies. Kruse will lead the Romulus North Jr. High Band in its annual Spring Concert at the school at 7:30 p.m. June 1.

Mahalak to seek 8th term in House

State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak (D-Romulus) has announced he will be a candidate for reelection to an eighth term in the Michigan Legislature.

Mahalak has represented the 38th House District since it was created in 1964. The district covers part of Wayne County and more than half of Monroe County.

He presently is a member of the House Appropriations Committee, and is chairman of two of its subcommittees, Safety, Defense and State Police, and Veterans and Military Affairs.

Before being appointed to the appropriations committee in 1975, Mahalak served four terms as chairman of the Veterans and Military Affairs Committee and one term as its vice-chairman. He has also served on eight other House Standing Committees: judiciary, corrections, public safety, public utilities, consumers and agriculture, drainage, roads and bridges and state affairs, and has served on numerous special study committees.

"In deciding to seek an eighth term, I feel that my seniority in the House and my position on the influential Appropriations Committee enables me to effectively represent the interests of the citizens of the 38th District," Mahalak said. "I appreciate the wonderful support I have received from the people of the district, and I would like to continue to be their voice in the Legislature."

Mahalak added that he takes pride in the fact that he has sponsored many laws which benefit the citizens of his district and those of the State of Michigan.

PBS expands programming for impaired

The Public Broadcasting Service—

Hearing—is aiming for the integration of the hearing and the hearing impaired in daily activities, including television viewing.

PBS, in conjunction with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare's Bureau of Education for the Handicapped, hopes to have a special "decoding" devices available to hearing-impaired viewers prior to that season. The device would be installed on the viewer's television set, enabling the set to receive "closed" caption signals on line 21 of the screen. This line runs across the top of the TV screen and is normally not visible.

The use of the decoders and line 21 would eliminate the current criticism of "open-captioned" programs. Open-captioned programs are subtitled at the bottom of the screen and are visible to all viewers. Use of this method has been limited because of the criticism that it annoys and distracts viewers who have no hearing handicap.

However, until the decoders become available and closed captioning gets underway, PBS, and locally Channel 56, will continue to broadcast nearly five hours per week of open-captioned programs. This roster includes the weeknightly (11:30 p.m.) "Captioned ABC Evening News"; and on Saturdays (5 to 6 p.m.): "Consumer Survival Kit" and "Turnabout" (for women and the men in their lives). PBS also will continue to caption various specials and documentaries.

Channel 56 has scheduled two such specials for May in observance of "National Better Hearing and Speech Month." "The Silent Minority," showcasing the views of people who just happen to be deaf; airs Saturday at 6 p.m. Immediately following at 6:30 p.m. is "Sing a Sign," the first nationally telecast original musical revue in sign language. The show features a cast of young deaf singers; dancers and actors, including Miss Deaf America, Susan Davidoff.

In an effort to make the community aware of the full-range of public TV's commitment to the hearing impaired, Channel 56's Programming Director Jerry Trainor will be on hand at the first annual Hearing Integration Day workshop to be held next Wednesday at the Jewish Community Center in West Bloomfield. The workshop—co-sponsored by the center and the Mitchell Buddy Workshop for the Hard of Hearing, Deaf and County presses its battle against new sewage plant

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners, acting at the request by the county health department, has directed its lawyers to "take whatever legal action is necessary" to prevent construction of the proposed Ypsilanti sewage treatment plant due to a pollution warning.

The decision was made on the basis of charges that the sewage treatment plant would pollute Belleville Lake and force the banning of swimming, fishing and water sports on the largest lake in the county.

The board acted on an emergency basis at a May 4 meeting after being informed that bonds to finance the plant's construction will be issued shortly.

"Large amounts of flow from the plant will be dumped into Willow Creek, which empties into Belleville Lake, and pollute and probably close the lake for any public use," Commissioner Thomas Presnell told the meeting.

Willow Creek empties into Belleville Lake within 1,000 feet of the Van Buren Township bathing beach.

The County Department of Health is responsible for checking water purity of lakes in the county and has the power to close them to water sports when pollution is above safe levels.

Chief Assistant Corporation Counsel George Cross said the seeking of a court injunction to block issuance of bonds for the plant was among the possible actions which his office would study.

Belleville Lake and the Huron River, which flows through the lake, is "two of the choicest recreational facilities for the people of this county and the surrounding area," Commissioner Edgar Harris said. He added: "This past summer, Belleville Lake had to be closed to swimming, fishing and, in many instances, to boating. The bacteria showing up in the lake can come from only two sources—warm-blooded animals or human sewage."

There are no animal farms upstream from the lake, so it has to be human sewage."

Commissioner Samuel A. Turner (D-Detroit), a member of the executive committee of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG), also urged that Wayne County try to block the Ypsilanti plant.

"We fought this in SEMCOG, trying to keep Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor from going it alone and building their own treatment plants. We tried to get them to join in the 'supersewer.'"

Commissioner Conrad L. Mallett (D-Detroit), also a SEMCOG delegate, added: "We have been concerned about this for over a year."

The board directed the county corporation counsel's office to report at the next board meeting, probably tomorrow, on what steps are being taken.

Glenn J. Brown, health department director of environmental health, said his department feels that Ypsilanti should be required to discharge the treated sewage into Ford Lake in Washtenaw County rather than into Willow Creek.

"Most of the time, the plant will do its job," Brown commented. "But there inevitably will be instances of human and mechanical failure and storm overloads when raw sewage will be dumped into Willow Creek. We don't see how Belleville Lake can survive as a recreational resource."

The so-called supersewer, a project sponsored by the Wayne County Board of Public Works, originally was conceived to eliminate sewage discharge into inland lakes and streams.

Community Pride hosts

Senior citizens take a lot of pride in what they do and their job for Michigan Week is to host Community Pride Day on Saturday. These flowers grown by the senior citizens at Romulus City Hall were one of the highlights of last year's Michigan Week celebration and this Saturday, they have an even greater array of activities than last year. A pot-luck picnic with varied games, contests, craft demonstrations and square dancing will round out the day. In addition, the oldest male and female and longest-married couple will be honored in award ceremonies. It's all a fitting conclusion to Michigan Week — Romulus style.—(Photo by Jay Young, Romulus Public Information Office).

Tornadoes: Do you know what to do?

Tornadoes have caused 227 deaths in Michigan since 1950 and officials of Belleville and Van Buren Township want to make sure that their residents don't end up as part of those statistics.

There will be a simulated tornado warning Friday to help residents get in practice on how to act, where to go and what to do in case of tornado weather.

The months of April, May, June and July are prime tornado months in Michigan, which is located on the fringe of what is known as "tornado alley."

It is therefore important that residents have a plan of action ready when they hear that "watches" or "warnings" are issued by the weather service, or when they hear the sirens that signal tornado weather.

The first basic piece of information you must know is the lingo used in reporting weather conditions on radio and television.

When a "tornado watch" is announced, it simply means that conditions are right for development of a tornado. The greatest frequency of tornadoes occurs during temperatures between 70 and 75 degrees, with high relative humidities. They can occur at any time of the day or night, but most often develop in the late afternoon and evening hours, between 3 and 7 p.m.

Tornadoes develop from dark thunderstorm-like clouds.

They generally come from the southwest at speeds between 20 and 45 miles per hour. Almost all come somewhere from the western horizon.

Many times they grow out of spring thunderstorms and accompany thunder, lightning, high winds and hail.

When you hear that there is a watch in effect, it is best to keep a radio or television on to hear later reports on developing weather conditions. Watches usually are two to six hours long, and give you time to prepare.

For instance, you should place small objects, such as garbage cans and bicycles, inside, make sure the family knows what to do in case of a tornado, and keep children under close supervision.

"A tornado warning" is issued by the weather service whenever a tornado actually has been sighted or strongly indicated by radar. The weather bureau also issues watches and warnings for severe thunderstorms.

While a watch may cover an area about two-thirds the size of lower Michigan, a warning usually is issued for three or four counties, and usually lasts no longer than 1½ hours.

The warning tells you to seek shelter immediately, to go to the basement or other place you have decided will be safest in your home. Move to the center of the lowest floor you have, preferably in a small room or closet. Stay low, possibly under heavy furniture, and keep away from windows.

Naturally, it will be much easier to find that shelter, if you have planned well in advance the place in your home that is safest.

And remember all those emergency items you were advised to buy in case of blackouts from a coal shortage? They will come in handy now. Items to have with you in your shelter would include transistor radio, flashlight, blankets, and first aid kit.

If there is time, it is recommended that you open some windows in your home to relieve pressure which will build up inside the building. That pressure could cause the walls to blow out.

If you are in a car when a tornado strikes, you should move away from the storm by driving at right angles to its path.

But if that fails, get out of the car and take shelter in a low-lying land area — a ditch or ravine. Cars can be tossed by the fierce wind.

In Brief—

Pick a career

A host of leisure time activity workshops will be held tomorrow at Romulus South Junior High School, 11401 Olive St., to give students a chance to learn various activities.

As part of Career Exploration Project, students will take part in workshops designed to develop productivity during their free time.

The public is invited to drop in and take part in these sessions, which will be conducted by teachers from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Workshops will be taught by teachers who have a special interest in that particular activity.

There will be workshops in vegetarian cooking, macramé, jazz and rock music, tennis, table tennis, volley ball, frisbee, folk dancing, stamp and coin collecting, card and board games, skeet shooting and horseback riding at the junior high school.

Students also will have the opportunity to travel to surrounding recreational facilities to participate in golf, racquetball, roller skating, hockey and bowling.

Summer fun set

People who love to "pick their own strawberries" will have to do it a bit later this year.

That's the word from Chuck Paas, chairman of the Belleville Strawberry Festival and spokesman for the Belleville-Ypsilanti Strawberry Grower's Association.

"Due to the cold, wet spring, strawberry picking season will be somewhat later than prior years," he said.

"This type of weather, however, is excellent to develop a larger than normal crop. Plants look good and are just beginning to make blossoms — so we look for red, ripe juicy strawberries to be ready in the area of June 10."

For updated information, interested persons can call the Strawberry Hotline - 699-2088 - after May 29, Paas said.

There are five Strawberry farms in the Belleville-Van Buren Township-Ypsilanti area where the public can pick their own strawberries.

Belleville South Junior High posts honor roll

Thirty four students attending Belleville's South Junior High School have been awarded all A's for their academic efforts during the second six-week marking period of the second semester.

Seventh graders garnering the perfect marks were Eric Brown, Mary Ferrell, Rodney Fisher, Cynthia Fitch, Christina Gramlich, Anne Krafve, Brock Nigg and Timothy White.

Students discovery poetry

Many a young student has turned up his nose at poetry, but the fourth graders at Elwell Elementary School got a special lesson in appreciating verse during the past several weeks.

Belleville resident and retired school teacher Elizabeth Hunter has been volunteering her time each week to visit Julie Hacala's fourth grade class and teach one of her greatest loves, poetry.

Mrs. Hunter taught fourth grade herself for many years, so she was right at home in the classroom. She explained the aspects of poetry, the rhyme, verses and structure, and she read poetry to the students.

After a few weeks the children, with Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Hacala, put on a program for parents, where students read verse, or recited poetry they composed themselves.

The grand finale was a farewell party for Mrs. Hunter recently, an affair planned by the students. They brought refreshments, cakes, and best of all composed poetry to present to the lady of honor. Many recited their poems aloud. Mrs. Hacala is convinced that the lessons had quite a positive effect on the youngsters.

According to Mrs. Hacala, the retired teacher has promised to return next school year with her poetry lessons.

Mrs. Hunter also teaches Bible class, is a regular participant with the Belleville senior citizens club, and maintains active community involvement.

The top eighth graders were Todd Bos, Edward Carnahan, Aaron Eagle, Betty Fowler, Jean Korotney, Steven Koss, Kim Marken, Cheryl Mayer, Billie Roberts, Kelly Schank, Thomas Steiger, Cindy Streetman, Renee Switzer, Kimberly Taylor, Beth Thompson, Lori Vicchy, Toni Wanshon, Katherine Weathers and James Wertz.

Ninth graders with all A's included Kristine Buchanan, Carol Burek, Jennifer Cahen, Steve Ghanan, Natalie Gress, Sue Meyer and Anna Ostrowski.

Also named to the honor roll were:

TODAY'S Real Estate
by M. Phyllis Crabtree

Here are some home decorating tips that are indispensable for keeping your largest investment looking handsome: Remember that lighting makes a great difference. While a room should be well-lit, you should avoid glare. It is better to have several well-placed light sources than one very powerful one. Children's rooms should be child-proof. The child's rooms you'll like the most are the ones you have to worry about the least. Fine furniture can wait until the children have grown up. Start with the scuff-proof, hammer-proof, crayon-proof kind.

The agent to call for all your real estate transactions is CENTURY 21 COMMUNITY REALTORS, 10675 Belleville Road, Belleville. What Is the "Sudden-Infant-Death" Syndrome?

This is the occasion when a child, well-cared for and robust, usually between the ages of three weeks and twelve months, is put to bed; a short time later the mother returns to the bedroom to find the child dead. There is no sign of struggle although the child may have changed position.

This type of death is often called "crib death." It is a particularly devastating experience for parents of the child. They suffer feelings of guilt which they shouldn't. If they have used normal care and precaution, there's absolutely no reason for them to blame themselves. In situations such as this, it is recommended that the parents consult their minister, doctor or psychiatrist.

Ongoing medical research has not yet been able to find any reason for this type of death; nor can they predict or prevent it. "Old wives tales" and much misinformation surrounds the sudden death of an infant under these otherwise normal circumstances.

Should this happen to someone you know, try to understand their own helplessness and the lack of knowledge now available.

SUFFERING NEEDLESSLY?

Millions are turning to chiropractic because they are recognizing the scientific principles of nature that have made spinal adjustments effective for many conditions where other methods have failed.

The chart below shows the lateral view of the spinal column and indicates in section "A" names of the spinal nerves as they branch from the spinal cord and exit through openings between the vertebrae. All tissues, glands and organs supplied with life energy by these nerves are shown in the section marked "B" in the chart. The section marked "C" describes a partial list of the conditions and symptoms that can result when there is an absence of life in the nerves.

B. Area Supplied by Nerves	A. Side View of Spine	C. Results of Nerve Impingement
Blood supply to the head, the pituitary gland, the scalp, bones of the face, the brain itself, inner and middle ear, the sympathetic nervous system.	1C	Headaches, nervousness, insomnia, head colds, high blood pressure, migraine headaches, mental conditions, nervous breakdowns, amnesia, epilepsy, infantile paralysis, sleeping sickness, chronic tiredness, dizziness or vertigo, St. Vitus dance.
Eyes, optic nerve, auditory nerve, sinuses, mastoid bones, tongue, forehead.	2C	Sinus trouble, allergies, crossed eyes, deafness, cataracts, eye troubles, sarcoma, fainting spells, certain cases of blindness.
Cheeks, outer ear, face bones, teeth, trifacial nerve.	3C	Neuralgia, neuritis, acne or pimples, eczema.
Nose, lips, mouth, eustachian tube.	4C	Hay fever, rose fever, etc., catarrh, hard of hearing, adenoids.
Vocal cords, neck glands, pharynx.	5C	Laryngitis, hoarseness, throat conditions like a sore throat, quinsy, etc.
Neck muscles, shoulders, tonsils.	6C	Stiff neck, pain in upper arm, tonsillitis, whooping cough, croup.
Thyroid gland, huree in the shoulders, the elbow.	7C	Burnitis, colds, thyroid conditions, goiter.
Arms from the elbows down, including the hands, wrists and fingers, also the esophagus and trachea.	8C	Asthma, cough, difficult breathing, shortness of breath, pain in lower arms and hands.
Heart including its valves, and covering, also coronary arteries.	9C	Functional heart conditions and certain chest pain.
Lungs, bronchial tubes, pleura, chest, breast, nipples.	10C	Bronchitis, pleurisy, pneumonia, congestion, influenza, grippe.
Gall bladder and common duct.	11C	Gall bladder conditions, jaundice, shingles.
Liver, solar plexus, blood.	12C	Liver conditions, fevers, low blood pressure, anemia, poor circulation, arthritis.
Stomach.	13C	Stomach troubles including nervous stomach, indigestion, heart burn, dyspepsia, etc.
Pancreas, islands of Langerhans, duodenum.	14C	Diabetes, ulcers, gastritis.
Spleen, diaphragm.	15C	Stomach troubles, hiccoughs.
Adrenals or supra-renals.	16C	Allergies, hives.
Kidneys.	17C	Kidney troubles, hardening of the arteries, chronic tiredness, nephritis, pyelitis.
Kidneys, ureters.	18C	Skin conditions like eczema, or pimples, eczema, boils, etc., auto-intoxication.
Small intestines or colon, inguinal rings.	19C	Rheumatism, gas pains, certain types of sterility.

Appendix, abdomen, upper leg, caecum.	21C	Appendicitis, cramps, difficult breathing, acidosis, varicose veins.
Sex organs, ovaries or testicles, uterus, bladder, knee.	22C	Bladder troubles, many knee pains.
Prostate gland, muscles of the lower back, sciatic nerve.	23C	Sciatica, lumbago, difficult, painful or too frequent urination, backaches.
Lower legs, ankle, feet, toes, arches.	24C	Poor circulation in the legs, swollen ankles, weak ankles and arches, cold feet, weakness in the legs, leg cramps.
Hip bones, buttocks.	25C	Sacroiliac condition, spinal curvatures.

SPINAL NERVE INVOLVEMENT CAUSES MANY CONDITIONS

The spinal chart shown above is directed especially to those people who have tried to regain their health through methods other than chiropractic, and have failed. That failure should not lead to discouragement, but to greater determination to discover the fundamental cause of all disease.

Since the discovery of chiropractic, no one needs to feel that he or she is destined to be sick all their life. Remember, "Where there is life there is hope and he who has hope has everything."

Grass guzzlers

Energy conscious officials say they hope to do away with the large engined "gas-guzzling" cars that abound on our streets. But they will have to cope with a new threat as revealed by the pair of "grass guzzlers" snapped in this photo. Go-

Go, the horse, and Ginger, the pony, are held by Amy Hopson, 13, of Romulus, as they take the "self-serve" sign literally and munch away at this Speedway gas station at Wayne and Wick roads in Romulus. — ANP Photo by Tom Greenwood.

Ma Bell to improve services in Romulus

Michigan Bell expects to spend $939,000 this year to expand and improve telephone service in the City of Romulus.

David K. Easlick, company president, said the expenditure is part of the company's record $469 million state-wide construction program for 1978.

The state-wide outlay, up from $394 million last year, will be spent on land and buildings, poles and cable, tools and vehicles, telephones and switchboards and switching equipment.

Haze Wilson, a manager for Michigan Bell, said the local 1978 program calls for the expenditure of $268,000 for outside plant facilities; $572,000 for telephones in homes and offices; and $99,000 for central office equipment.

Coupled with a $2,098,100 payroll which Michigan Bell paid its 120 employees in Romulus in 1977, "it's easy to see what an economic impact our company has on this community," Wilson said.

The largest single state-wide allocation of construction money — $153 million — will be used for the purchase and installation of switching equipment, most of it new electronic switching systems (ESS) developed by Bell Laboratories.

During 1978, crews from Western Electric, manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell System, will complete the installation of ESS equipment in newly constructed buildings in Rockwood, Willis, Commerce, Cheboygan, Lapeer, Ada, Hastings, Hamburg and East Lansing, and in established locations in Grand Rapids, Wyoming, Port Huron, Bay City and Midland.

Editorial opinions

Cancelled meeting corrects bad situation

Van Buren School District Trustees, when faced with a difficult problem, such as the replacement of Superintendent Dale Kaulitz, quickly made the decision that such weighty deliberations were above the limited intellect of the voters. They would have to make the 'tough' decisions behind the safety of closed doors. Not only closed doors, but closed doors in Romulus.

But to provide a cloak of legality for that closed meeting in the face of the Open Meetings Act, Superintendent Kaulitz called Lansing and Senator William Faust's office for clarification of the law. Faust's aide, David Callanan took the call and relayed Kaulitz' question to Assistant Attorney General Mark Blumer.

The question asked by Kaulitz was, "does the law require posting of notice for the planned closed meeting?"

Blumer's reply was yes. Any meeting of any public body must be announced to the public. Callanan then sent off a letter to Kaulitz informing the Superintendent that the meeting would have to be posted.

In spite of the fact that the Open Meetings Act requires that any scheduled meeting of a public body must be posted in advance, and that no closed meeting may be held unless the body votes at an open meeting to meet in closed session, the Van Buren school board scheduled the Romulus meeting. And why in Romulus? Certainly there are adequate facilities for the meeting in Van Buren, and at no cost to the School system.

Board members Ron Tocco and Charles Paas have both publicly expressed concern over the necessity for the closed meeting, and to their credit have urged the board to make the meeting public.

It is unfortunate that the Van Buren school board members appear to have such little regard for the voters of that district. But we are not too surprised. It was this same school administration and board that have made it so difficult for the citizens within the district to gain information about the board and its operations.

Last year when several citizens questioned the salaries being paid to school administration, those citizens were given the run-around by Jack Hosmer, director of business affairs, who required that any such request be made in writing.

Fortunately, school board officials have now made the decision to cancel the closed meeting. We hope that decision was based on what is best for the residents of the Van Buren School District rather than in the best interests of the board members themselves.

But, in the meantime, board members and the administration as well should take this opportunity to review all provisions of the Open Meetings Act.

Van Buren schools belong to the residents of the district. They should be treated accordingly.

About 'Open Meetings Act'

We at Associated Newspapers feel that it would be appropriate for us to provide both elected officials and the residents of the areas we serve with a review of the more important sections of the law as it affects the right of citizens to attend public meetings, and as the law outlines the responsibility of elected officials to provide access to those meetings.

The following provisions of the Open Meetings Act, are from Michigan's Attorney General Frank J. Kelley's opinion No. 5138 of 1977.

The Open Meetings Act applies to all public officials engaged in any meeting for the purpose of considering or adopting a public policy. The only exclusion is a chance gathering NOT designed to avoid provisions of the Act.

The following paragraph from the act essentially outlines what constitutes a meeting between elected officials:

Meetings with a quorum present held to deliberate a public question must be held at a public meeting. Thus, if the members of the public body gather, a quorum being present, for the purpose of deliberating, the meeting is subject to the provisions of the act even if there is no intention that the deliberations shall lead to the rendering of a decision on that occasion.

Other provisions of the Open Meetings Act require public notice of any meeting that will be held by a public body, and that a closed meeting may be called for only during an open meeting of the public body, and upon a two-thirds vote of the body. Should the public body vote to close the meeting for any one of the eight listed exemptions to the Open Meetings Act, they may do so, but must keep a record of the proceedings via minutes just as if the meetings were open.

But, the most important provisions of the Open Meetings Act, and the provisions that give the citizens the necessary clout to ensure compliance by their elected officials, are the penalties provided by the act for violations.

A public official who intentionally violates the act is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000. A second violation by the same official within the same term of office is punishable by a fine of not more than $2,000.

In addition, elected officials are personally liable for the effects of intentionally violating provisions of the act. Any citizen who feels that an official has violated provisions of the act, and that violation has created problems for them, may initiate a civil action aimed at the elected officials involved. Any official found guilty of such a violation will be held personally responsible for actual and exemplary damages of not more than $500 plus costs.

The citizens now have the muscle to ensure that elected officials comply with the provisions of the Open Meetings Act, the act designed to ensure openness in government necessary for a democracy.

Guest editorial

Unite for the common good

By BARBARA FALER

The writer of our guest editorial this week is a young mother of three who lives in Van Buren Township. Barbara Faler, 31, was born in Lansing and has developed an avid interest in education.

She earned a Bachelor's Degree in Speech Pathology in 1968 from Western Michigan University and later received her Master's in Deaf Education from Eastern Michigan University in 1971.

Barbara and her husband, Keith, are the parents of three boys, Jason, 6; William, 4; and Wayne, 18 months. The family has resided in Van Buren Township the past eight months after spending the previous three years in California.

Keith has been employed as an engineer at the Ford Motor Company for 10 years.

Barbara's hobbies include sewing and reading and the young homemaker plans to move active as a result of recently joining the new racquetball club at Lemontree Apartments.

As I listen to the discontent of people concerning public education, and read of national polls reflecting people's concern about the quality of public education, I fear for the existence of a common educational experience for our children.

How do the Van Buren Public Schools fit into the overall national concern about public education?

People here are dissatisfied with the quality of education.

Why? The Citizens Advisory Council has established a list of criticisms and concerns of local school residents. And yet, there seems to be an apathy on the part of the general public here, as evidenced by the low attendance of local P.T.O. meetings, school board meetings, and educational group meetings. I hear many criticisms of our educational system, yet see involvement from only a small number of people.

I believe that people feel they no longer have control or an equal voice in the school system that they financially support. Discouraged by the "Watergates" in government and also the "Watergates" in school economies, school residents have turned to apathy, while still holding to the ideal that the "professionals" (i.e., the school board, administrators, and educators) should do an excellent job in return for the taxpayers' money.

Money has never proven to be the overall motive for producing excellence, as one can readily see in the products manufactured in our society or the quality of performance of government officials, office employees, or even in the job of parenting.

Only people cooperating and sharing ideas together, and pressuring for excellence in objectives and performance (in addition to adequate monies), can produce the motivation for quality schools (or quality government).

I fear that frustrated school taxpayers are going to seek to "patch up" the ills of public education by trying different avenues of financing public education. One of the quickest "patch-up" remedies would be the voucher system providing for each child to be educated in the school of a parent's choice.

On the surface, this alternative might appear to create motivation for quality education by increasing competition among educators, as well as possibly alleviating local school property taxes. However, it would create more discrimination and inequities than now exist against the handicapped and various ethnic, economic and intellectual brackets of our society.

Groups only too willing to exploit children in teaching a variety of divisive ideologies as well as groups willing to financially exploit parents would be given the sanction to exist.

It could well mean the end of the public institution that creates a commonality among American people—the educational institution that produces the democracy we are blessed to be a part of in the U.S.A.

Public schools could end up being the dumping ground for the poor and handicapped, while more affluent or educated Americans seek out a private school.

If the taxpayers, out of frustration and apathy choose to let the state and federal government finance education, we could be left eventually with gross loss of education tax dollars while the monies are sifted through levels of educational elites to our local schools.

Recent studies show that the "caliber" and qualifications of local school board members are declining because no one wants the job of being a school board member. Where a void exists, the State will have to fill it.

Local control of schools is a must, no matter how we eventually finance education, for local involvement alone can stop the apathy of the masses. But, if we citizens care about the education of our children, we must be actively involved in informing our school board as a group (individuals have little power and resources) of the needs of our children and the desires we have for the educational experiences of our children.

Money alone cannot motivate educators and administrators, but the care of citizens will be the motivation for quality education.

I suggest that rather than placing all the blame for the "mess" of public education, on our local administrators and school board, that we place some of the blame on ourselves for our apathy.

Criticisms alone are worthless. Let us unite together to voice our feelings and recommendations. After united, study of educational objectives and programs.

Let factory workers, white collar workers, professional, young and old and parents unite in determining the trend of local public education. We must be willing to listen to everyone's ideas and needs, "put-up" with some disunity and the frustrations of learning to work together again.

The monies that we have recently voted in are at stake, the quality education of our children is at stake, and ultimately our children are at stake for the next school year.

Our children will be the victims of our apathy, negativism and blame of others. We cannot expect seven people to be responsible for running a $12,000,000 business without mistakes. But, if we unite we may be able to decrease the amount of mistakes and motivate all involved (including ourselves) to enrich the educational experiences of the children of Van Buren Public Schools.

We can start by going to the Meet The Candidates Night at the High School Auditorium on June 5th, from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. Tell the candidates our hopes for local school education and find out if they are supportive of general community concerns.

Also, we can unite under a group that already exists, The Citizens Advisory Council, but a group that has had too few members. We need a large group of community people to represent the community's needs and desires for local public education. We do not need a group to represent small interests, but a group that can together provide a stimulus for a good general education for Van Buren children.

I urge you to be a part of that group. Let us put aside the intimidations and inadequacies we feel as individuals and unite for the common good of our children.

'No hunching please'

By DENNIS FASSETT

The move by some backers of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) to persuade Congress to extend the deadline for ratification of that amendment has more the appearance of 'special interest' politicking than dedication to principle.

With three states short of ratification and with the deadline of March 1979 approaching, some of the feminists have concluded that the only hope left for passage of ERA rests with such an extension.

But, other more moderate ERA supporters feel that any extension of the ratification deadline would almost surely carry with it the proviso that any state which had previously approved the amendment would be granted the opportunity of withdrawing ratification, thereby killing the law forever. (Several states which previously had ratified the ERA amendment have indicated they would like to reverse their vote).

Damned if you do and damned if you don't.

At the risk of sounding like a chauvinist, I do not feel that the nation in general, or women in particular, need the protection of just another unenforceable law.

It is my contention that women in the United States are more interested in passage of the amendment for philosophical reasons than for its legal protection.

And that contention raises serious questions concerning passage of ERA.

A look at history would provide many comparable situations that remain unsolved by the mere passage of new legislation.

The blacks of our country were freed by Lincoln in 1865, but many remain in bondage today. Women suffrage gained the vote but did not noticeably increase the perception of the average voter. And the kids who were old enough at 18 to die for their country have not benefitted noticeably from lowered drinking ages.

If women are asking for legal recognition, they should talk to the many women attorneys. If women are seeking recognition for what they can contribute they should ask one of our governors. If women are seeking equal treatment, they should ask the lady firefighter or cop. But if women simply want to be men, they must ask God.

I think it is time for the women in this country to clearly identify the goals they are seeking. It is very easy to claim discrimination, probably easier than to gain respect, but in the long run, the Equal Rights Amendment will provide nothing for women in the future that women today could not have simply by expending the necessary effort.

A common phrase heard around the neighborhood marble pit is "no hunching". "Hunching" is the dastardly trick of moving your shooting hand illegally inside the circle that contains the target marbles. Crossing that line gives the shooter a decided advantage, but says little for his or her ability.

Well, I think that women are trying to 'hunch'. I think that any special interest group that would advocate special interest legislation is trying to 'hunch'.

Rather than making the effort to succeed, many of the marble shooters of today are crying foul and hoping that the umpire will spring to their defense. But what is gained?

The 'hunching' marble shooter may win the game but will always wonder what the result may have been had they not taken unfair advantage of the opponent. But much worse, they may never learn that it really wasn't necessary to hunch in the first place.

The challenge for women today is to win with the existing rules. Wanting to be equal, but with an advantage, is to never reach full potential.

There is little doubt in my mind that women have, and will continue to make, significant contributions to society.

But, the contribution they could ultimately make will certainly be diminished in direct proportion to the size of the headstart they are given.

Equality, of course. But more than equal, still makes them less than equal. More than equal is a concession that women could not have made it on their own.

So ladies, welcome to the race, but no 'hunching' please.

To the Editor:

As the 1977-78 school year comes to a close, it marks a milestone for our family.

Since Mt. Pleasant opened in 1966, seven of our eight children, have passed thru those doors. Our youngest, Paul, will be leaving this June.

When school reopens this fall, it will be the first time in twelve years, that a member of our family will not be enrolled at Mt. Pleasant School. It will be like losing a good friend.

I would like to take this opportunity to "thank" all the generous people who have been involved in giving our children the main part of their education.

Special "thanks" goes to Mrs. Celia Green, Mrs. Algertha Leonard, and Mrs. Nettie McDonald, who have taught several different members of the family at Mt. Pleasant. Special "thanks" also is in order to Mrs. Jessie Simmons, as she taught the oldest, a daughter, in the sixth grade at Harrison School, and this year taught the youngest, a son, in sixth grade at Mt. Pleasant.

The parents of this community can be very proud of the staff at Mt. Pleasant School. Thanks all present and past staff for the job you have done.

Mr. Clean a dirty bird

By JOYCE HAGELTHORN

One of my favorite pastimes has been to ride on busses, trains, airplanes, sit in restaurants, or any other public place, and listen to people. What people usually say and what they think they are saying are usually as far apart as the teenage kid and his parent.

I had a sister-in-law who was the original Mrs. Clean. Long before TV found the giant in the washing machine, she was having an affair with him. And the knight on the shining white horse who could change a dirty floor to a clean floor in the twinkling of his shining suit, was on an ammonia sharing relationship with her long before most of us woke up to the fact that the kitchen floor harbored germs...and other lusty things.

My sister-in-law could clobber any of these ugly little creatures that leave stain on your porcelain, but probably the thing that intimidated us slob the most, was that she could still find time to raise a bunch of kids, be a champion on the golf course, and swim a mile a day.

And yet...

Well, let me tell you about it.

One beautiful day in the early spring, I waved to the fuzzy-wuzzies under the bed, hid the dirty dishes in the cupboard, grabbed up my kids and tied them to my golf cart and stopped to pick up my clean sister-in-law. And she was ready... her kids all togged out in miracle-white, her house gleaming and even the smell of good cooking permeated the kitchen.

"I'm all ready," she said. "And I won't have to rush, because dinner is in the oven."

"But won't it be ready hours before you get back?" I asked, noting it was a casserole.

"Oh sure," she answered. "But my new stove will just turn it off and then about 4:30, turn the oven back on to heat it through again."

After marveling over the latest things in stoves for busy women, an ugly thought hit me.

"My gosh," I said. "Doesn't that worry you?"

Pictures of droves of bacteria invading that casserole, flew through my head.

"What?" she asked, checking a spot on the floor.

"Well, leaving the casserole at a warm temperature during the day might let bacteria get in."

"Oh, I don't see how," she answered. "I put a lid on the casserole. And I closed the oven door tight!"

The Bald Eagle Speaks

'Pet peeves'

By BOB AMEEN

Almost everyone in this world has one or more pet peeves — those irritating little inconveniences that often tax one's patience and peace of mind.

Hoping that there are others out in the big wide world who share some of mine, following is a list of pet peeves which personally bug the devil out of yours truly:

- Waiting in a cafeteria line for the one food item you've had your heart set on, only to find out when you get there, that the establishment has run out of it.
- Paying $3.50 for a movie ticket and then having to sit through several local commercial advertisements that are shoved down your throat as one of a captive audience.
- Getting ready to shave in the morning and then realizing that you've forgotten for the umpteenth time to buy new razor blades.
- Rushing out to the airport to pick up a friend or loved one only to discover that their particular flight is an hour late.
- Trying your hardest to faithfully stay on your diet only to be met at every turn with well-meaning friends pushing every sort of delicacy imaginable in front of your nose.
- Typing your shoelaces while hurrying to get ready for a very important meeting and then having it break in two with no others available.
- Hurriedly marking down your yearly vacation on the boss' schedule and then noticing that someone with more seniority has taken the time period you wanted.
- Attempting to make a telephone call of the utmost urgency and finding the line busy time after time.
- Washing your car and then having it rain almost immediately.
- Nursing a set of tires on your car until your income tax refund comes in and be thwarted when one blows out before the check arrives.

- Waiting impatiently for your check on payday and then being told that a computer breakdown will delay it until the following week.
- Rushing home with a dozen roses for your loved one or spouse and then discovering another dozen rose setting on the mantle sent that same day by someone else.
- Having your wife pick up the telephone when it rings and being told by the department store that the gift which you specially ordered for her birthday has arrived.
- Reaching in your pocket on a blind date to pay for your sumptuous meal only to find out that you forgot your billfold.
- Having the chair you're trying to sell fall apart when the prospective buyer sits in it to test its comfortableness.
- Having friends drop in unexpectedly and then noticing there are no ice cubes for the drink which you so graciously just offered them.
- Stopping to surprise a friend or relative while on an out-of-town trip and being told by the neighbor that they are on vacation.
- Waiting anxiously for the daily newspaper to arrive so you can see your daughter's wedding picture on the society page, but finding out later that your newspaper boy is sick and that a substitute missed your delivery.
- Forgetting to set your alarm clock the night before an early morning interview on the job of your dreams.
- Seeing the winning lottery number for the day flash on your television screen with the knowledge that you have it 10 times, but for yesterday.

Health Beat

'Perhaps there is no answer'

By RUSS TUTTLE
Director, Community Relations
Peoples Community Hospital Authority

His real name isn't important to this story; it'll suffice to say that he was a big, dark-haired pilot from Western Texas.

His first duty station was Lowry Air Force Base in Denver, Colorado. There his principal duty was to pilot a B-29 bomber which had been rigged out to accommodate machine gun positions for fledgling aerial gunners.

Three times a week he'd lift his big bird off the runway and fly North to the isolated Air Force gunnery area outside of Cheyenne, Wyoming — a flight of just over 100 miles.

Once he'd arrived in the restricted airspace, he'd rendezvous with a fighter airplane which would be towing a large, zeppelin-shaped cloth target on a 1000-foot tether. The young airmen in his B-29 would then begin to blaze away at the target in an attempt to learn the basics of aerial combat.

Most pilots looked at him as lucky; he had easy duty, was able to put in for his flight pay each month, and was a long way from the real thing in Korea.

But soft duty and too much free time can do strange things to a person. He took to boozing during his many off-duty hours. Suspicious eyes were raised at the Officers' Club; hence, his drinking episodes began to occur more and more frequently in the many sleazy gin mills in Denver's skid row.

More than once he actually flew an airplane while drunk or while suffering from an intense hangover — something which a sane pilot will never do. There is no place to park and clear up your head at 10,000 feet!

His drinking episodes became intensive. Finally he was called on the carpet by the Squadron Commander and told to "straighten up or I'll have you busted out of the Air Force in disgrace."

As one might guess, the threat was ignored. He was grounded and confined to his quarters pending the initiation of Courts Martial proceedings.

He was ordered out of his BOQ (Bachelor Officer Quarters) and forced to finish his confinement in a BOQ further from the airstrip.

As he was packing his B-4 bag to move — a B-4 bag is an Air Force-type suitcase — he noticed a pocket-sized Bible stuffed into the bottom of the bag. The Bible had been given to him when he first entered the service, and like many GI's, he really never took the time to look at it.

This time he picked up the Bible and began to read it earnestly. Prior to reading the Bible, he'd never been, as far as he could remember, to church a day in his life. He had an abundance of free time now that he'd been relieved of duty and he read the Bible several times. Then, as he put it, "I realized the errors of my life and became a born-again Christian."

For some reason, the Courts Martial was never convened. Rather, he was transferred to a base in Virginia where he learned to fly the B-26 bomber. His next duty station was an airstrip in Southern Korea.

He flew night-intrusion missions with an intensity and fearlessness which terrified his crew, and often equally terrified other American pilots flying his wing.

On several occasions, his airstrip was bombed. While every man who possibly could found a hole to crawl into during the bombing, he would be seen wandering about, Bible in hand, as if he were at a Sunday School picnic. Hard as it may be to believe, he was never scratched in combat.

One night in May — it was May 17, 1953 to be precise — he was returning from a mission. The flight was routine, and at no time did he ever notify ground control or anyone else that there were any problems with the airplane.

As he started his glide to the airstrip, the airplane suddenly dropped like a rock and exploded with a deafening roar some 300 yards from the runway. He was killed, and so was his two-man crew.

His entire life had only spanned 25 years; 25 years in which he'd been married and divorced, alcoholic and teetotaler, atheist and devout Christian, then combat veteran and finally only a memory as the result of an unexplained, once-in-a-million times accident.

As I recalled this true story, and it is indeed a true story, I couldn't help but wonder about the curious twists that life can take.

I couldn't help but wonder at the very nature of life itself and the strengths and weaknesses of mortal man.

But wondering is not answering. Perhaps there is no answer, but I chose to believe that the answer is within man himself.

For and about seniors

Inflation tagged as top problem

By MAUREEN BEATTY

"If you were President Carter, where would you place your priorities for the needs of our country?" It was not surprising, when I recently went to our readers with this question, that the No. 1 answer was inflation.

People are concerned with the high cost of living, especially in the areas of food and utilities where the consumer has little or no control. We can't stop eating, and very few of us could adjust to living without gas and electricity, or even a telephone.

Medical care was the second concern of those I polled. The high cost of health is a problem for everyone, but even more so for our senior citizens. Having worked in a medical clinic in the past, I'm aware of what is meant by the term "preventative medicine." I am also aware of the expense that can be involved. Recently, I heard someone use the term "defensive medicine" in connection with the large number of tests being run routinely. Are we responsible for this because we have made suing doctors and hospitals a national pastime, or do some doctors make taking advantage of medical insurance plans their passtime? The answer probably lies somewhere in between.

Contrary to recent polls, no one spoke out against President Carter. A few said they thought he was doing the best he could under the circumstances.

'For the condition the country was in when he took over, he is doing the best he can...'

Teresa Hay, 73, of Romulus said: "To be frank about it, I don't know just what should take priority, but I give him credit for trying to do a good job. He is very sincere in what he is doing. For the condition the country was in when he took over, he is doing the best he can."

Genevieve Sulkey, 63, of Sumpter Township said: "I would put my priorities in Medicare. Elderly people are in need of help. When they come off Blue Cross-Blue Shield, they have to pay quite a bit for their medical. Also property taxes are really bad on elderly people."

George Blackburn, 66, of Sumpter Township said: "I would try to curb inflation, because I think it is ruining this country. I was in the grocery store and green peppers were 44 cents a piece and cabbage was 33 cents a pound. Before I'll pay those prices, I'll leave them there."

Martha Clark, a senior citizen of Romulus, said: "It would be to try to stop inflation. I think President Carter is a perfectly honest man, but I guess he is having trouble fighting bureaucracy."

Paul LeChevalier, 71, of Westland said: "Control inflation. Medical costs. National health for everyone with federal control is a must. Doctors and hospitals are ripping off the people. And more help is needed for seniors to get them out of their shells. And he should look into taking care of more seniors at home instead of nursing homes. It would cost less and be much better."

Theresa Bauman, a senior citizen of Wayne, said: "To get out of the depression we have right now and to give senior citizens a better life like they used to have. Prices are too high to live like we used to. We were better off years ago."

Emma Mallott, 67, of Westland said: "I think Carter is doing a good job right now. He can't do everything he wants to do of course, because of the senate and congress."

Oscar Chapman, 75, of Wayne said: "Inflation all the way across the board. But he'd better reestablish better foreign relations also. We have lost out in convincing other countries that we are honest even with ourselves."

Barbara Dukes, 20, of Inkster said: "Unemployment. The crime rate is high because unemployment is so high. If fewer people were unemployed, the crime rate could come down."

Sails on Saturday

Bob-Lo's opening day to benefit MDA

Memorial Day weekend is the traditional time for the annual maiden voyage for Bob-Lo. This year the opening day, Saturday, will become a special fund-raising party for the Muscular Dystrophy Association. The 10 and 11 a.m.

sailings will feature entertainment for children in the form of Sir Graves Ghastly from Channel 2 and Chrissie the Clown, plus many of his friends including magicians and mimes. There also will be disco dance demonstrations by Arthur Murray dance instructors. All of this will serve as a preview of the shows to be held all afternoon in the Island Pavilion.

The first afternoon show will be for children. Sir Graves Ghastly will add his special touch of humor to the childrens show as the emcee. The featured musicians will be Detroit's talented "Blue Pigs". Next will be two dance competitions, identical in format. They will be open to the public who may enter by registering at the pavillion just prior to each of the disco shows. The winners will be chosen by guest celebrities, and "Super" Max Kinkel from CKLW Radio and WWJ-TV will emcee. There will be drawings at the disco contests including Arthur Murray dance lessons and special prizes for the best dancers. These will be color television sets, black and white television sets and two pieces of jewelry from Michael Allen Jewelers in West Bloomfield.

Ticket prices are the standard Bob-Lo rates. MDA will receive $2.75 from each boat-plus-amusements ticket. The boat-only tickets will generate $1 each for MDA. The pavillion shows are 50 cents each for the childrens' 1 p.m. performance and $1 each to either the 2:15 or 4 p.m. disco dance shows. All of the pavillion admissions will go directly to benefit MDA.

the afternoon and evening. Advanced tickets will be available at the Bob-Lo box office Friday from 12 noon to 3 p.m. only.

Additional information may be obtained by calling 968-0626 or 968-0627.

Return sailings are scheduled throughout

Social Security tightens rules on getting card

Everyone, regardless of age or place of birth, must now submit evidence of age, identity and U.S. citizenship or lawful admission status when applying for a Social Security number according to Robert Long, branch manager of the Inkster Social Security Office.

These procedures are intended to help protect the applicant's Social Security record, assure that it is complete and accurate and to prevent anyone else from misusing or abusing the person's Social Security number, Long said.

A person who needs a duplicate Social Security card to replace one lost or to show a new name must now present evidence of identity before the new card can be issued.

The best evidence of a person's age and U.S. citizenship is a birth certificate. Evidence of identity should include documentation which shows the person's picture, signature, date of birth or age, or other identifying information. Applicants not born in the United States should submit evidence of their U.S. citizenship or their immigration documents showing they are lawfully admitted to the United States.

If there are any questions, call 493-1111 or visit the Inkster office at 27407 Michigan Avenue.

First hand

In an effort to teach students by a more direct approach, teachers of Romulus elementary and secondary schools have had elected officials and administrative personnel visit their classes to discuss the workings of government. This picture was snapped at Cory Elementary School, 35200 Smith Road, and shows Romulus Mayor William M. Oakley conversing with the

UAW's Fraser on 56

Douglas Fraser, president of the United Auto Workers, will be the special guest on "Newsmakers," a Local Circuit production of Channel 56, Friday at 10:30 p.m.

Topics for discussion are expected to range from how President Carter is faring in his relationship with the unions to the UAW's stand on national health insurance. Other questions are expected to cover the UAW's hopes for the future, including the four-day work week, and the charge that unions may already have gone too far.

Produced and hosted by Lois Pincus, "Newsmakers" each week brings people who make the news together with local reporters for a half-hour of questions and answers. One of those posing the questions will be Reginald Stuart, Detroit bureau chief for the New York Times.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE

VAN BUREN PUBLIC SCHOOLS DISTRICT COUNTIES OF WAYNE AND WASHTENAW STATE OF MICHIGAN

TAX ANTICIPATION NOTES

(General Obligation)

SEALED BIDS for the purchase of tax anticipation notes of Van Buren Public Schools District, Counties of Wayne and Washtenaw, Michigan of the par value of $3,425,000.00 will be received by the undersigned at 555 West Columbia, Belleville, Michigan until 8:00 o'clock, P.M., Eastern Standard Time, on the 19th day of June 1978, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read.

NOTE DETAILS; INTEREST RATE; PAYING AGENT; AND DENOMINATIONS: The notes will be dated July 3, 1978, will mature April 1, 1979 and will bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding 6 percent per annum. Both principal and interest will be payable at a bank or trust company located in the State of Michigan to be designated by the original purchaser of the notes which paying agent qualifies as such under the Statutes of the State of Michigan or of the Federal Government, subject to the approval of the Van Buren Public Schools District. Denominations and form of notes to be at the option of the purchaser. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such notes must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

PRIOR REDEMPTION: The notes shall not be subject to redemption prior to maturity.

AWARD OF NOTES: For the purpose of awarding the notes the interest cost of each bid will be computed on a 360 day year basis by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the notes from July 3, 1978 to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The notes will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest dollar interest cost to the municipality. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the notes or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

SECURITY: The loan is in anticipation of the operating portion of the School Tax for the fiscal year July 1, 1978 to June 30, 1979, which tax is due and payable December 1, 1978.

GOOD FAITH: A certified or cashier's check in the amount of 2 percent of the par value of the notes, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the notes. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned.

LEGAL OPINION; DELIVERY OF NOTES: Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of the purchaser's attorney approving the legality of the notes, to be secured at the purchaser's expense. The purchaser shall furnish notes ready for execution at his expense. Notes will be delivered at a place to be agreed upon with the purchaser.

THE RIGHT IS RESERVED TO REJECT ANY OR ALL BIDS.

ENVELOPES containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Notes."

Garrison hosts corps-O-rama

The Golden Garrison will host the third Corps-O-Rama, to be held July 2 at Shadford Field in Ypsilanti.

The 7 p.m. show will be followed the next day by the annual American Legion Fourth of July Parade at 11 a.m. July 3. All corps participating in the Sunday night show will appear in the Monday morning parade.

Corps-O-Rama will feature six outstanding corps from the Great Lakes Drum Corps Association. Returning to defend their 1977 title will be The Blue Coats from Canton, Ohio. Also returning from the 1977 show will be the Saginaw, Cardinals of Precious Blood from Canada and the all-girl Praesidium from Riverview. New corps competing this year will be the Midshipmen from Petosky and General Putnam's Men from Ohio at the Cherry Festival in Traverse City.

Tickets for Corps-O-Rama will go on sale June 10. Admission will be $3 for adults, with high schoolers and senior citizens' tickets costing $1.50.

The Corps-O-Rama will be the first home town appearance of the Golden Garrison, the newly formed Ypsilanti area drum corps. It is made up of boys and girls from Ypsilanti, Belleville, Ann Arbor, Wayne, Westland and Tecumseh.

Say cheese

Did you know that cottage cheese combined with hard-cooked eggs makes a good sandwich filling? Combine four hard-cooked eggs, chopped, with one and one-half cups of cottage cheese, one tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, two teaspoons prepared mustard and one and one-half teaspoons seasoned salt. Blend thoroughly and chill several hours before using.

Motion carried.

Raymond Kohr presented teacher tenure recommendations for June, 1978. Motion by Charles Paas, supported by Ronald Tocco, to table approval until evaluations are reviewed. Motion carried.

Douglas Brown discussed parental objections to the novel entitled Flowers For Algernon. A committee of high school teachers, the majority being English teachers, will be appointed to review novel and submit in writing the purposes and values of the novel being used in the high school curriculum, the degree of its appropriateness, and to make a recommendation for its continued use or for its removal from use. The book has been suspended from use until the report has been completed. The Board will be apprised of the situation possibly by the May meeting.

A list of eight candidates for the three positions on the Board of Education was presented.

A preliminary draft of a vacancy announcement brochure for the position of Superintendent of Schools was distributed. An application blank for the position of Superintendent of Schools was presented and approved for use.

Discussion was held with visitors regarding a future millage election date if the April 24, 1978 millage election fails. After discussion, motion by Charles Paas, supported by William McCollum, that if the additional millage fails on April 24, 1978, the Board would not initiate another election for additional millage until the spring of 1979. Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned at 9:35 p.m.

* * * SPECIAL MEETING * * *

April 25, 1978

A Special Meeting of the Van Buren Board of Education was held in the Board Room of the Administration Building on Tuesday, April 25, 1978 at 7:00 p.m.

Members present: Doris Roe, Richard Muse, William McCollum, Robert Cook, Ronald Tocco, and Charles Paas. Absent: James Sayre. Also present were Superintendent Dale Kaulitz, Director of Business Affairs Jack Hosmer, Director of Instruction Douglas Brown, and Director of Personnel Raymond Kohr.

The meeting was called to order at 7:10 p.m.

Douglas Brown introduced Martie Ray representing Michigan Bell Telephone Company who described the proposed new telephone system for the High School, Vocational Building, and Administration Building. No action was taken on the proposal. Douglas Brown is to secure a quote from a private company, resolve problem regarding additional conduit, and bring the proposal back to the Board at a future meeting for further consideration. Raymond Kohr presented names of seven teachers and recommended that the Board approve tenure status for them. Motion by William McCollum, supported by Richard Muse, that tenure status be granted to the following teachers:

Ann Furtwangler, Elsie Goode, Carol Potter, Royce Woods, Frank Flores, Robert Seefeld, and Harry Uhlianuk.

Motion carried.

Raymond Kohr presented names of three teachers who have requested termination of contract. Motion by Richard Muse, supported by Robert Cook, that:

Barbara Mitchell, teacher on medical leave, be granted request for termination of contract effective April 24, 1978.

Donna Smith, teacher at the High School, be granted request for termination of contract effective June 9, 1978, and Joseph Stachnik, teacher at South Jr. High School, be granted request for termination of contract effective April 24, 1978.

Motion carried. Motion by William McCollum, supported by Richard Muse, to rescind resolution approved on March 20, 1978 to eliminate seven administrative and supervisory positions and to reinstate the positions. (Copy attached) Ayes: Roe, Muse, McCollum, Cook, Tocco, Paas, Absent: Sayre. Nays: None. Motion carried.

Motion by Ronald Tocco, supported by Charles Paas, to approve resolution to eliminate the school nurse position because of failure of Proposal IV to carry at the April 24, 1978 millage election. (Copy attached) Ayes: Roe, McCollum, Muse, Cook, Tocco, Paas. Absent: Sayre. Nays: None. Motion carried.

Motion by Charles Paas, supported by Richard Muse, that the resolution regarding the Citizens Advisory Committee be published in the paper with names of committee members. Motion carried.

Proposals for the June 12 Annual School Election must be approved by the Board on or before May 1, 1978. Suggested proposals are to be received Friday, April 28. All suggested proposals to be delivered to the Board members on Friday afternoon for consideration prior to Special Meeting to be held on Monday, May 1, 1978.

Meeting adjourned at 8:35 p.m.

State has many 'offbeat' activities

Note: This is the first in a series of 15 weekly articles on "Offbeat Michigan." These features are designed to encourage Michigan tourism and near-home travel.

A grape stomping bash, a frisbee fling and a cherry pit spitting sideshow are among far-out festivals awaiting persons seeking offbeat Michigan activities this summer, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

For "do-it-yourself" adventure, Michiganders also can drive in a demolition derby or tractor pull, hang glide off a Lake Michigan bluff or sail by boat from Port Huron to Mackinac Island. Owners of homely hounds or beastly bowlers can enter their pooches in Michigan's ugliest dog contest.

To guide tourists and weekend vacationers in Michigan to zany events with a wacky bent, Auto Club has compiled a list of 20 "Far-out Festivals."

The first annual Cherry Pit Spitting Contest July 8 at the Tree-Mendus Fruit Farm in Eau Claire in southwest Michigan is designed to promote Michigan's red tart cherry industry.

When Paw-Paw—Wine Capital of the Midwest—holds its Sept. 15-17 Grape and Wine Festival, tourists get a chance to sip wine and take part in the traditional grape stomping contest. Winners and losers alike wind up with purple feet.

Frisbees should fly furiously at the Range Snowmobile Club near Houghton-Hancock, site of the International Frisbee Tournament July 1-2. Now in its 21st year, that Upper Peninsula event has received national recognition.

Contests for the ugliest dog, the person with the most freckles or biggest Afro haircut and frog jumping are just part of the fun at Muskegon's Seaway Festival June 24 to July 2. A Log Rolling Contest is set Aug. 12 at Mill Pond near Farwell.

Foot-stomping good times also await visitors attending the June 25 Thornapple Bluegrass Festival at Flint's Wilson Park. Part of the Flint show includes gospel bluegrass concerts and a mountain dancing demonstration.

Defiers of gravity can attend the June 30 through July 4 National Soaring and Hang Gliding Festival. The Lake Michigan bluff near Elberta is the location for glider demonstrations while soaring will be staged at the Frankfort Airport. Youthful drivers can reach speeds

Soccer benefit planned

A soccer game between the Detroit Express and the Dallas Tornados will be held for the benefit of the Metropolitan Detroit March of Dimes on June 11 at the Pontiac Silverdome. The event will take place at 3 p.m.

The action-packed game will feature Kyle Rote, star player with the Tornados, who will make his first appearance in Detroit. Trevor Francis, new scoring sensation for the Express, also is scheduled to play.

Tickets for the match are selling for $3, $4, $6 and $8 and are available at the Silverdome, Hudson's and Olympia Ticket Service in Birmingham.

Proceeds from the event will go toward the March of Dimes fight against birth defects.

Contestants sought for Strawberry Festival pageant

The call has gone out for any single Belleville or Van Buren Township woman between the ages of 17 and 24, interested in vying for the first annual Strawberry Festival Queen Beauty Pageant.

The pageant this year will be held on June 16 at St. Anthony's Church, 409 W. Columbia St., Belleville, to select the young woman to reign over the second annual strawberry festival. The pageant will be at 7 p.m.

Contestants will be judged on their poise, personality and general appearance. A pre-judging will determine those women eligible for the pageant, and those selected as finalists will be notified by mail or telephone as to the details, organizers said.

Applications for the pageant may be obtained at the offices of The Belleville Enterprise Newspaper, 116 Fourth St. They should include a resume of the contestant's education, hobbies and future plans, as well as a recent photograph, which will be returned.

Applications must be returned by no later than 5 p.m. June 9 to the Enterprise Office. A pageant application follows.

of 33 miles per hour in the July 23 Detroit Soap Box Derby at Dorais Field. For sailors, the 259-nautical mile Port Huron at Mackinac Island sailboat race, which begins July 15, is an exhilarating experience.

Sleight-of-hand artists will demonstrate their wizardry during Colon's Aug. 9-12 Magic Get Together. Artistic wizardry of another type can be seen at the Clothesline Art Fair at Reeds Lake in East Grand Rapids, where dozens of artists will show their works June 17.

Physical fitness buffs can join 20,000 walkers Sept. 4 for a 4½-mile stroll from St. Ignace to Mackinaw City as part of the Labor Day Mackinac Bridge Walk. Nearly 700 participants are expected for the June 24-25 Mid-American Gymnastics Beach Meet at Stearns Park in Ludington.

Demonstrations of bullet molding and miniature soldier carving, cannon firing competition and costume judging plus a military parade can be seen at the June 17-18 Muzzleloaders Festival at Dearborn's Greenfield Village.

For those with appetites, there's the July 14-16 Bridgeport "all you can eat" Sauerkraut Festival and Munger's July 27-30 Potato Festival. The Munger event also features a demolition derby and tractor pull.

A donkey baseball game and a 1,000-unit parade highlight the Sept. 8-10 Carry National Festival at Holly. Other Southeast Michigan offbeat festivals are Farmington's Founders Festival July 27-29 with a variety of games and carnival rides for children and the Aug. 23-27 National Water Skiing Championships at Tivoli Gardens in Brighton.

AMENDED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE CANTON, VAN BUREN AND SUMPTER WATER AND SEWAGE DISPOSAL AUTHORITY

These Articles of Incorporation are adopted by the incorporating municipal corporations for the purpose of creating an authority under the provisions of Act No. 233, Michigan Public Acts of 1955, as amended (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "enabling act").

ARTICLE I

The name of this Authority is "Canton, Van Buren and Sumpter Water and Sewage Disposal Authority". The registered office of the Authority will be located in the Township Hall of the Charter Township of Canton, Wayne County, Michigan.

ARTICLE II

The incorporating municipal corporations creating this Authority are the Charter Township of Canton and the Townships of Van Buren and Sumpter, all in the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, which are hereby designated as the constituent municipalities.

ARTICLE III

The purpose of this Authority is to acquire, own, improve, enlarge, extend and operate a water system or sewage disposal system or any part thereof in accordance with the enabling act. The term "water system" as used in these Articles shall include all water mains, interceptors, laterals, water purification plants, pumping stations, wells, and all other plants, works, instrumentalities and properties used or useful in connection with the obtaining collection, treatment, purification and distribution of water. The term "Sewage Disposal System" as used in these Articles shall include all interceptor sewers, storm sewers, sanitary sewers, combined sanitary and storm sewers, sewage treatment plants, and all other plants, works, instrumentalities and properties used or useful in connection with the collection treatment and-or disposal of sewage and-or industrial wastes.

ARTICLE IV

This Authority shall be a body corporate with power to sue or to be sued in any court of this state. It shall be comprised of the territory lying within the corporate boundaries of its constituent municipalities. It shall possess all of the powers granted by statutes now in effect or hereafter adopted or amended, and by these Articles, which are necessary to carry out the purposes of its incorporation, and those incident thereto. The enumeration of any powers herein or in the enabling act shall not be construed as a limitation upon its general powers unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise. It shall have a corporate seal.

ARTICLE V

This Authority shall continue in existence perpetually or until dissolved by act of the parties or by law: Provided, however, that it shall not be dissolved if such dissolution would or could operate as an impairment of the bonds or other contracts.

ARTICLE VI

The fiscal year of this Authority shall commence on the first day of January and end on the thirty-first day of December in each year.

ARTICLE VII

The governing body of this Authority shall be a board of Trustees, hereinafter referred to as the "Board", which shall consist of six trustees, two of whom shall be residents of the Charter Township of Canton and be appointed by the Township Board of said Township and two of whom shall be residents of the Townships of Van Buren and Sumpter each and be appointed by the Township Boards of said Townships. Members of the first Board shall be so appointed within thirty days after these Articles become effective and their terms shall be staggered so that the two trustees from the Charter Township of Canton shall serve for terms expiring on June 30, in the years 1974, and 1976, respectively, the two trustees from the Township of Van Buren shall serve for terms expiring on June 30 in the years 1975 and 1976 respectively, and so that the trustees from the Township of Sumpter shall serve for terms expiring on June 30 in the years 1979 and 1980 respectively. Succeeding trustees shall be so appointed on or before the fifteenth day of June of each year and shall serve for three-year terms beginning on the following July 1 and until their respective successors are appointed and qualified. Each trustee shall file his oath of office with the clerk of the constituent municipality from which he is appointed. Trustees shall serve without compensation but the Board may by majority vote of its total membership authorize payment of actual expenses incurred by any trustee in connection with the business of the Authority. The members of the first Board shall qualify by filing their oaths of office and shall meet for the purpose of organization within thirty days after their appointment and thereafter the Board shall meet for such purpose on the third Monday in July of each year at the time and place fixed for the holding of regular meetings. At each such organization meeting the Board shall select a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman, who shall be members of the Board, and a Secretary and a Treasurer who may but need not be members of the Board. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be combined and held by one person if so provided in the By-Laws. Such officers shall serve until the next annual organization meeting and until their respective successors shall be selected and qualified. Failure to hold meetings or appoint or select trustees or officers as herein provided shall not render invalid any action taken by the Board or its officers. No appointment of any trustee or election of any officer, and no action taken at any meeting, shall be invalid because it did not occur within or at the time specified in these Articles. Any member of the Board may be removed for cause at any time by majority vote of the legislative body which appointed him. Any officer of the Board may be removed at any time by majority vote of the total membership of the Board.

ARTICLE VIII

In the event of a vacancy on the Board, the legislative body of the constituent municipality which appointed the trustee whose position has become vacant shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. In the event of a vacancy in any office of the Board, such vacancy shall be filled by the Board for the unexpired term. In case of the temporary absence or disability of any officer, the Board may appoint some person temporarily to act in his stead except that in the event of the temporary absence or disability of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman shall so act.

ARTICLE IX

Regular meetings of the Board shall be held at such time and place as shall be prescribed by resolution or in the By-Laws of the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chairman or any four members thereof, by serving written notice of the time, place and purpose thereof, upon each member of the Board personally, or by leaving it at his place of residence, at least twenty-four hours prior to the time of such meeting, or by depositing the same in a United States Post Office or mail box within the limits of the Authority, at least seventy-two hours prior to the time of such meeting, enclosed in a sealed envelope properly addressed to him at his home or office address, with postage fully prepaid. Special meetings of the Board at which all members are present shall be deemed to be valid even though no written notice thereof may have been given as above provided. Any member of the Board may waive notice of any meeting either before or after the holding thereof and written consent to any action taken by the Board shall have the same effect as if the consenting member had been present and had voted in favor of such action. At least four members of the Board shall be required for a quorum. The Board shall act by motion, resolution or ordinance. For the passage of any resolution or ordinance providing for the issuance of bonds there shall be required the affirmative vote of at least four members of the Board. For all other actions, a majority vote of those present shall be sufficient for passage, unless otherwise provided herein or in the

By-Laws. The Board shall have the right to adopt By-Laws and rules governing its procedure which are not in conflict with the terms of any statute or of these Articles. The Board shall keep a journal of its proceedings, which shall be signed by the Secretary. All votes shall be "Yeas" and "Nays", except that where the vote is unanimous, it shall only be necessary to so state. Each member shall be required to vote upon all matters unless he shall be disqualified therefrom. No member may vote upon any matter in which he has a personal interest. No trustee shall have any financial interest in any contract with the Authority.

ARTICLE X

The Chairman of the Board shall be the presiding officer thereof. In the absence or disability of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman shall perform the duties of the Chairman. The Secretary shall be the recording officer of the Board. The Treasurer shall be custodian of the funds of the Authority and shall give to it a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office. The cost of said bond shall be paid by the Authority. All monies shall be deposited in a bank or banks, to be designated by the Board, and all checks or other forms of withdrawal therefrom shall be signed by two officers of the Board as shall be designated in the By-Laws or by resolution of the Board. The officers of the Board shall have such other powers and duties as may be conferred upon them by the Board. The Board shall prior to December 15 of each year, prepare, adopt and file with the legislative bodies of the constituent municipalities, an annual budget for the next fiscal year covering the proposed expenditures to be made for the organizing and operating of the Authority, and for the necessary funds required from each constituent municipality for the next fiscal year.

ARTICLE XI

The Authority shall have power to acquire property necessary for its purpose by purchase, construction, lease, gift, devise or condemnation, either within or without its corporate limits, and may hold, manage, control, sell, exchange or lease such property. For the purpose of condemnation it may proceed under the provisions of Act 149, Public Acts of Michigan, 1911, as now or hereafter amended, or any other appropriate statute.

ARTICLE XII

The Authority and its constituent municipalities may enter into a contract or contracts providing for the acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, extension, operation and financing of a water system or a sewage disposal system or any part thereof as authorized and provided in the enabling act. The Authority may, subject to the prior approval of the constituent municipalities, enter into contracts with any non-constituent city, village or township for the furnishing of water or sewage disposal service by any sewage disposal facilities owned or operated by the Authority, which contract shall provide for reasonable charges or rates for such service furnished. No contracts shall be for a period exceeding forty years.

ARTICLE XIII

For the purpose of obtaining funds for the acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement or extension of a sewage disposal system or any part thereof, the Authority may, upon ordinance or resolution duly adopted by the Board, issue its negotiable bonds, secured by contractual full faith and credit pledges of each contracting municipality, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the enabling act.

ARTICLE XIV

The Board shall have power to secure all necessary services and to hire all necessary officers and employees to carry out the functions of the Authority and to fix the compensation therefor: Provided, however, that no officer or employee of any constituent municipality shall receive any compensation from the Authority except by the unanimous vote of the total membership of the Board.

ARTICLE XV

The Board shall cause an annual audit to be made of its financial transactions by an independent certified public accountant and shall furnish at least five copies thereof to each constituent municipality.

ARTICLE XVI

These Articles shall be published once in the Community Crier, The Canton Eagle and The Belleville Enterprise and Legal Times, newspapers having general circulation within the territorial limits of the Authority, and one printed copy of the Articles, certified as a true copy thereof, with the date and place of publication, shall be filed with both the Secretary of State and the Clerk of the County of Wayne within thirty days after the execution thereof has been completed. The Township Clerk of the Township of Van Buren is hereby designated as the person to cause these Articles to be published, certified and filed as aforesaid. In the event he shall be unable to act or shall neglect to act, then the Township Clerk of the Charter Township of Canton shall act in his stead.

ARTICLE XVII

This Authority shall become effective upon the filing of certified copies of these Articles as provided in the preceding Article.

ARTICLE XVIII

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended at any time so as to permit any other municipality to become a constituent municipality of this Authority, if such amendment and the Articles of Incorporation as so amended are adopted by the legislative body of each constituent municipality and if such amendment is adopted by the legislative body of each constituent municipality of which the Authority is composed. Other amendments may be made to these Articles of Incorporation at any time if adopted by the legislative body of each constituent municipality of which the Authority is composed. Any such amendment shall be endorsed, published and certified, and printed copies thereof filed in the same manner as the original Articles of Incorporation, except that the filed and printed copies shall be certified by the recording officer of this Authority.

These Articles have been adopted by the several incorporating municipalities, as hereinafter set forth in the following endorsements, and in witness whereof the Supervisor and Clerk of the Charter Township of Canton and the Supervisors and Clerks of the Townships of Van Buren and Sumpter have endorsed thereon the statement of such adoption.

The foregoing Articles of Incorporation as amended were adopted by the Township Board of the Township of Canton, Wayne County, Michigan at a meeting duly held on the 9 day of May, 1978.

Solar system wins best in show

A pair of fifth graders who built their own solar system captured the prize as best entry in the science fair held at West Willow Elementary School in the Van Buren Public School District.

Jim Joslin and Sherry Fondaw created a model of the solar system as their exhibit in the contest, organized by fourth grade teacher Carl Marosi.

Fourth, fifth and sixth graders entered the contest, and each grade had three winners, judged by a three-man panel. Acting as judges were Dick Allen, a pharmacist of the Perry Drug Co., Dr. Paul Eisele, a scientist for Detroit Edison Dr., and Bill Houston, a junior high school teacher in the Van Buren district.

In total, 23 projects were submitted by 25 students in this first science fair for the school. Marosi said he hopes to have a science fair each year from now on.

The school PTO helped sponsor the fair by providing prizes for winners. Each first-place student was awarded $10, each second-place winner $5, and third-place entrants got a school book bag.

Science Fair top winners in each grade were:

— In the sixth grade, first place went to Jeff Smith for a battery powered truck, second place to Cindy Muncy and Laura Saylor for a model ferry, and third place to Gina Keens and Barbara Howell for a rock collection.

— In the fifth grade, first-place prize went to Sherry Fondaw and Kim Joslin for their solar system, an exhibit that also netted them the distinction of best entry. Second-place winner was Bobby Becker for a telephone, and third place went to Stacy Washington for a motorized van.

— Top winners in the fourth grade were Tina Tyree and Jamie Muncy for an electric board. Second and third-place winners were judged as a tie. Those two entries belong to Mike Munoz and Jason Carter for a motor and to Denise Ford and Lynn Smith for a rock collection.

What's for lunch?

School will be out Monday because of the Memorial Day holiday, but when Van Buren's students return on Tuesday they will face a week of such menu entrees as spaghetti with meat sauce and hot turkey sandwiches.

In the elementary schools Tuesday the menu will be juice, pizza, fruit, chilly things and milk, followed by a menu of spaghetti with meat sauce, vegetable, bread and butter, pudding and milk next Wednesday.

Next Thursday the cafeterias will be serving soup, barbequed beef on buns, french fries, cake and milk, while a lineup of juice, oven-grilled cheese sandwiches, tator tots, fruit Jell-O, cookies and milk will close out the week.

And the final meal of the school year will be served June 5 and 6, with the menu that Monday including juice, hot turkey sandwiches, mashed potatoes and gravy, cranberry sauce, cookies and milk. Cook's choice will be served on June 6.

In the district's junior high schools the menu Tuesday will be spaghetti with tomato and cheese sauce and Italian veal cutlet, vegetable, bread and butter, chilly things and milk, while next Wednesday's bill of fare will be barbequed beef on buns, with side dishes of juice, potato chips, fruit cake and milk.

Next Thursday the menu will be hot turkey sandwiches, mashed potatoes and gravy, cranberry sauce, vegetable, pie and milk, with a lineup of soup, oven-grilled cheese sandwiches, potato chips, cole slaw, cobbler and milk topping off the week.

The alternate menu selections for next week will be Coney Island foot-longs Tuesday, Belleville burgers next Wednesday, Belleville burgers with cheese next Thursday and shrimp in a bun next Friday.

The last two menus of the school year will be juice, hot meat loaf sandwiches, potatoes in gravy, fruit, cookies and milk June 5 and cook's choice on June 6.

Summer vacation will officially begin June 7.

Detroit Journal to air its best

The best of the music and interviews from past editions of "Detroit Black Journal" have been assembled into two, half-hour specials that will air June 1 and 8 at 8 p.m. on Channel 56.

Ron Scott will host the locally-produced specials that will feature some of the biggest names from the worlds of music, politics, books and entertainment.

On June 1 "Detroit Black Journal" will present musical highlights of previous shows. Featured will be local and national recording artists like The Spinners, Griot Galaxy, Roy Ayres and Positive Force.

Also during the show, Ron Scott will look at the roots of black music and how it develops on the street corners of the city.

The following Thursday, "DBJ" will show the best of the interviews and guests.

Among those featured on the program will be Alex Haley, Toni Morrison and Eartha Kitt.

Study Club installs officers; Helen Miller now president

Thirty members of the Woman's Study Club of Belleville gathered at the Lemontree Clubhouse May 10 for their annual dinner meeting and installation of officers. The salad potluck, which included sweet breads and chocolate cake, was planned by Yvonne Harner, chairman of the Public Affairs Committee, and her co-hostesses for the evening, Vivian Wallace, Winifred Gault and Ruth Cabler.

Following a short business session, the new officers for the 1978-80 administration were installed by out-going president, Avis

White. The new president, Helen Miller, will be assisted by Pat Baughman, vice-president; Vivian Wallace, recording secretary; Onnolee Wall, corresponding secretary, and Shirley Books, treasurer.

Guest speaker for the evening was Laura Callow, a Livonia homemaker who co-chairs the Michigan Chapter of ERAmerica. Mrs. Callow, a frequent contributor to WJR Radio's "Point of View", has been extremely active in pointing out to Michigan housewives the need for protection of the non-employed which ratification of the Equal Right Amendment would afford them.

At the recent Convention of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs held in Plymouth, the Belleville club was represented by president-elect Helen Miller, Arlene Smith, Pat Baughman, Onnolee Wall and Avis White. They were awarded, along with the Belleville Junior Study Club, silver trays as Southeastern District winners in the Community Improvement Program. Sponsored by Lars, Roebuck Company and the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the CIP program award came as a result of the two clubs continued efforts in beautifying the area along the lake on high Street known as Horizon Park.

A tree grows at Savage

A brand new hard maple tree, standing 10-feet tall, is now the first thing you see when you enter the grounds at Savage Elementary School. Brownie Troop 504 from the school proceeded with its "gardening" plans despite intermittent showers on May 11. The girls purchased the maple with money raised during a bake sale at the school carnival. Shown with their leader,

The season's here - so, 'think rhubarb'

By LEE SMITH
Suburban Living Editor

Hear ye, hear ye — 'tis now the season for rhubarb, rhubarb, rhubarb. Like its cousin, the tomato, and its garden neighbor, the zucchini, rhubarb arrives in rich, thick and plentiful quantities.

And in the event you have a plant or two in your own yard or are being besieged with it from your gardening friends, we've compiled a few recipes to help dwindle that supply.

Being an inveterate recipe collector I am therefore, well supplied with just about anything which might deal with the current productivity of fruits and vegetables and the availability of meats, fish, poultry, etc.

I came across this easy-to-do cake a few year's ago. Since it calls for a cake mix, it should be ideal for working women to toss together for a quick dessert.

Rhubarb Cake

1 small cake mix, white or yellow
3 cups rhubarb, cut into half-inch chunks
1 cup sugar
juice of one lemon
grated rind of one lemon

Prepare cake mix as directed on package. Pour batter into well greased and floured pan (size indicated on cake mix package.) Mix cut up rhubarb, sugar, lemon juice and rind in a sauce pan. Cook until rhubarb is well done. Pour mixture over cake batter; bake according to package directions. Serve plain, with ice cream or whipped cream.

Rhubarb-Cherry Pie

3 cups rhubarb, cut into ½ inch pieces
1 can (1 pound) pitted tart red cherries, drained
¼ cups sugar
¼ cup quick-cooking tapioca
5 drops red food coloring
1 recipe for 2-crust pie

Combine ingredients, except pastry; let stand 15 minutes. Line 9-inch pie plate with pastry; add filling. Adjust top crust; flute edge. Bake in 400 degree oven for 40 to 50 minutes. Serve while still warm.

Rosy Rhubarb Swirls

1½ cups sugar
½ cup cranberry juice cocktail
¼ cup water
3½ cups rhubarb, cut into ½-inch pieces
2 cups biscuit mix
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 tablespoon cooking oil
One-third to ½ cup milk
2 tablespoons soft butter or margarine

Combine 1 cup sugar, cranberry juice and water in saucepan. Bring to boil; boil 1 minute. Put half of rhubarb in greased 8x8x2" pan. Combine biscuit mix, 2 tablespoons sugar and nutmeg. Add oil and milk to make soft dough; knead lightly on floured surface. Roll into 9" square. Spread with butter; sprinkle with remaining rhubarb and 4 tablespoons sugar. Roll as jelly roll; seal; cut into 9 slices. Place slices, cut side up, over rhubarb in pan. Pour over cranberry syrup; sprinkle with 2 tablespoons sugar. Bake in 425 oven for 25 to 30 minutes. Serve warm. Makes 9 servings.

Rhubarb Ambrosia Betty

5 cups rhubarb, cut into ½-inch pieces
1¼ cups sugar
1 tablespoon flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoon grated orange rind sections from 1 orange, cubed
4 cups bread cubes
½ cup melted butter or margarine
½ cup flaked or shredded coconut

Mix together rhubarb, sugar, flour, salt, ¾ teaspoon orange rind and fruit. Add 2 cups bread cubes and ¼ cup butter; mix. Put into greased 8 x 2 x 2" pan. Combine remaining bread cubes, butter, orange rind and coconut. Sprinkle over top of rhubarb. Bake in 375 degree oven about 40 minutes, until browned. Serve warm. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Rhubarb Crunch

CRUMB TOPPING:
1 cup flour
¾ cup uncooked rolled oats
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
½ cup melted butter or margarine
1 teaspoon cinnamon

FRUIT MIXTURE:

4 cups diced rhubarb
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 cup water
1 teaspoon vanilla
Whipped cream (optional)

Mix together crumb topping ingredients until crumbly. Press half of crumbs in greased 9" layer pan. Cover with rhubarb. In small saucepan combine: sugar, cornstarch, water and vanilla. Cook, stirring, until thick and clear. Pour over rhubarb. Top with remaining crumbs. Bake in 350 degree oven for 1 hour. Cut in squares and serve warm; plain or with whipped cream. Makes 8 servings.

How to freeze rhubarb

And, finally, if you're just not able to take care of all that fresh rhubarb, get it ready for the freezer and a later-date cooking session. Here's how to freeze rhubarb.

Wash, trim and cut rhubarb into 1 to 2 inch pieces. Scald for 1 minute in boiling water. Cool 1 minute in cold water. Drain Well. When thoroughly drained, pack into plastic containers, seal well and mark with the portion each contains. Try not to put odd sizes (over or under 1 or 2 cupsful in each so that when ready to use, you will have either the 2 or 4 cups that most recipes require.

Picnic Pops is coming!

MARK YOUR CALENDAR — SAVE THE DAY — because Picnic Pops is coming to Belleville once again on June 3.

What, you might rightfully ask (if you've not been involved with Belleville High School music activities) is Picnic Pops?

It's one big happy gathering of all the school bands in an afternoon celebration of summer outdoor music, fun and fellowship for everyone.

As in the past, all this will take place at the high school athletic field starting at 1 p.m. and continuing until six in the evening.

Scheduled performances will include the BHS bands, North and South Junior High School Bands and the Elementary Honor Band.

Russ Jackson, Band Boosters president who is chairing the annual event, invites the community to bring a favorite folding chair and plan to spend the afternoon listening to good music performed by our fine school musicians. He also hopes you'll take advantage of the refreshment stands which will feature hot dogs, soft drinks, snow cones, ice cream, cotton candy and some home-baked goods. A raffle of several stuffed animals, being made especially for Band Boosters, will highlight the festivities.

There is no admission charge to the summery open air concerts. Your presence will encourage the young people to continue their interest in instrumental music.

'Artist of the Month' named

Bentley Galleries of Belleville is proud to announce its first winners in the "Artist of the Month" contest. Wanda Blahut of Belleville, who has been painting only one year under the tutelage of George Woodcock, earned the first place accolade for her oil painting of 100-year-old Tennessee mill and water wheel. Mrs.

Blahut, who received a frame as part of her prize, has already had a sales offer but it is doubtful she will want to part with her first-place work of art. Second place went to Dottie Richmond of Westland, who has only five months painting experience, and third was given to Mary Francher of Belleville. Both women receive instruction from Jean Bauer. The "Artist of the Month" will be a January through November contest judged by students, some 90 in all, of the Gallery. In December the monthly winners will return with their prize-winning paintings and compete for an "Artist of the Year" award.

Mother's Day brings families together

By Mrs. Joseph Spring
699-4021

Mr. and Mrs. Gillman Mullreed of Madelon Street spent the weekend at their cottage at Higgins Lake and enjoyed Mother's Day dinner with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Figg and their family at Mt. Pleasant.

Callers on Mothers' Day at the home of Mrs. Lavern Sayre of Ecorse Road were members of her family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sayre of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Don Rank of Plymouth, and the James Sayres of Morton-Taylor Road.

Former Quirk Road residents, Mr. and Mrs. Troye Lambert of Harrison, were calling on relatives and friends in the community this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dane Greashaber of Marian, Ohio were last Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Greashaber of West Columbia Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Seaman of Savage Road were Mothers' Day guests of their daughter and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Greg Gorga, and family, of Bloomfield.

After having been a surgical patient at Beyer Hospital in Ypsilanti for the past 10 days, Mrs. Clarence Heining is now convalescing at their home on East Huron River Drive, arriving home on Tuesday, May 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clayton of Bedell Street were dinner guests on Mothers' Day of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Muncie of Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warren from Weston-Super-Mare, England, have been guests this past week at the Robert Schaal home on West Columbia Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ransom of Naples, Fla. arrived last Wednesday to spend a few days with their son and wife, the Guy Ransoms of West Huron River Drive. The senior Ransoms were on their way to their summer home at Gilbert Lake, Wisc.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jobe of Venetian Street returned home on Thursday, May 11, after having enjoyed a 12-day vacation in Hawaii visiting the islands of Oahu and Maui.

Winifred Gault of Roland Street, Josephine Simon of West Columbia Avenue and Velma Kulzer of Liberty Street enjoyed lunch together at Fairlane recently with another friend, Stella Toth of Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nolf of Edison Street were over night guests on Wednesday of their son Dale and his wife at Kalamazoo. On Thursday they all attended the Tulip Festival in Holland. The senior Nolf's then motored to Big Rapids where they spent a few days with former Bedell Street residents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Boone.

The Russell Seamans of Savage Road recently enjoyed a weekend at Mansfield, Ohio, at an Air Stream Rally.

Wednesday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Graham of Liberty Street were one-time neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Crippen from Phoenix, Ariz., and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sparrow of Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Zimmer and children, Gwen, Donald and Jennifer, of Charlotte, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Zimmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Robson of Tyler Road.

Mrs. Dorothy Kellas of Margery

Street was a Sunday dinner guest of her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Satterlee and son, Bryant, of Westland.

William Graham of Liberty Street has returned home from Winnipeg, Manitoba, where he had spent the past two weeks with his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Rock Malloy and family.

Mrs. Chauncey Bishop of Sumpter Road has returned home after having been a patient at Beyer Hospital for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haft of Church Street were last weekend guests of their aunt, Mrs. Thurman Powell, and other relatives at Antwerp, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Welt of Grayling have been visiting relatives and friends in the community this past week.

Mrs. R. G. Atyeo of Church Street was a guest over the weekend of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nichols, at their cottage on Posey Lake near Adrian.

On Mothers' Day Mrs. Lloyd Orr of Crowley Street was a special guest of her family for dinner in Frankemuth. Those present besides her husband, Lloyd, were Larry and Diane Orr of Flint, Lynn Orr and friend, Mark, from Romulus and Lanny Orr and friend, Lori Hatcher, from Taylor.

Paula Dolph of Pittsburg, Pa., spent several days last week with her parents, the Albert Dolphs of Edgar Street. On Mothers' Day the Gerry Dolph family joined them for dinner.

Sunday guests of Mrs. B.P. Hopson (Zula) of Belleville Road were her son, Thornton and wife from Birmingham. She enjoyed a special dinner cooked by Thornton.

Friends of Mrs. Harry (Carrie) Meier, a one-time French Landing resident, are sorry to learn that she is a patient in the hospital wing of the Gilbert Residence in Ypsilanti where she has been a resident for some time.

Cheryl R. Knight earns BA degree at Harding

MISS KNIGHT

A Belleville High School graduate, Cheryl Romayne Knight, was among the 330 students who received their degrees from Harding College in Searcy, Ark. on May 4. A speech education major and member of the Chorale and Campus Players, Miss Knight was awarded a bachelor of arts degree.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knight of 45 E. Wabash St., Belleville.

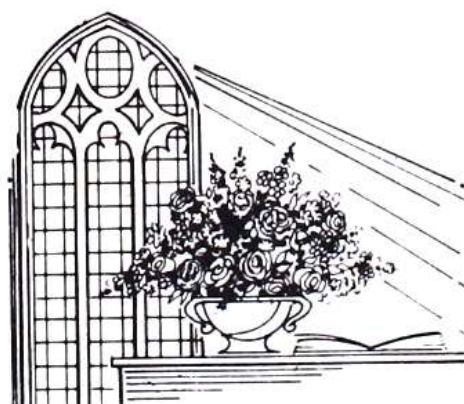

Dr. Clifton L. Ganus, president of the college, presented the diplomas. Keynote speaker was Kersey Kinsey, a California building contractor and president of the Kersey Kinsey Company Builders in Studio City, who graduated from the Harvard Graduate School of Business.

Kinsey and L.M. Clymer, president and chief executive officer of Holiday Inns, Inc. in Memphis, were awarded honorary doctorates at the ceremonies.

MISS REINHARD

MISS JEFFERY

REINHARD - SELLE

A summer wedding is being planned by Sandy Reinhard of Belleville and Dean Selle of Romulus according to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reinhard of 22394 Martinsville Road, Belleville, who are announcing the engagement.

The First United Methodist Church of Wayne has been reserved for the young couple's July 15 altar date.

Currently employed at The Red Apple in Belleville, Miss Reinhard is a 1974 graduate of Belleville High School.

Her fiancé, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Selle of 29036 Ecorse Rd., Romulus, graduated from Romulus High School in 1974 and now works for Chrysler Engineering in Highland Park.

JEFFERY-DOMZALSKI

The engagement and autumn wedding date of their daughter, Jane Anne Jeffery, and Raymond Domzalski are announced by Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Jeffery of 17235 Sumpter Rd., Belleville.

The bride-elect graduated in 1977 from Belleville High School and is now employed at Meijer Thrifty Acres.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Domzalski of Livonia are parents of the prospective bridegroom who is a 1975 graduate of Churchill High School in Livonia currently working for K-Mart Corporation. The young couple plan to be married on October 13.

Two scholarships awarded by ABWA

Two scholarship checks for $150 each were awarded at the regular meeting of the Huron Valley Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association (ABWA) May 11 at Nickerson Farms Restaurant.

Mary Ann Rickelman, a student at Madonna College, was awarded her fourth scholarship from the chapter while Jennifer Ramsey, a Michigan State University co-ed, received the award for a second year.

In keeping with Scholarship

Month, the club invited Janet Hink, a second grade teacher at Haggerty Elementary School, to be guest speaker.

Members who recently returned from a weekend trip to Madison, Wisc. where they attended the Annual Regional Convention, were Hazel Bigham, Mary Braden, Johnnie Courter, Edith Davenport, Marvel Docksey, Bunny Hardy, Mazie Isaacson and Willene Taylor. Next year's convention will be held in Grand Rapids.

Here're some hints

Compiled by Lee Smith Suburban Living Editor

If your recipe calls for light or heavy cream in a recipe and you find yourself without it, here's the way to substitute other ingredients. Take 3 tablespoons butter plus about 1/4 cup milk for 1 cup light cream or coffee cream (light cream contains 20 percent milk fat.) Substitute one-third cup butter plus about 3/4 cup milk for 1 cup heavy or whipping cream, which contains 40 percent milk fat.

For the cook who wants to break down cupsful into tablespoons-ful, here's an easy-to-clip list.

1/4 cup equals 4 tablespoons one-thirds cup equals 5-one-thirds tablespoons 1/2 cup equals 8 tablespoons two-thirds cup equals 10-two-thirds tablespoons
3/4 cup equals 12 tablespoons seven-eighths equals 14 tablespoons skewer.

— Chantilly: a dish in which whipped cream is one of the ingredients. Name derived from that of a castle north of Paris.

— Charlotte: a gelatin dessert containing flavored whipped cream, molded in a form lined with sponge cake or lady fingers.

— Chutney: a spicy, somewhat sweet relish, made from several fruits and vegetables.

— Consomme: a light colored clear meat soup.

— Creole: highly seasoned food typical of that prepared by the Creoles, descendants of early French and Spanish settlers of Louisiana.

— Demitasse: French for "half cup." A small cup for or of after-dinner coffee.

— Eclair: cream puff paste baked in oval shape filled with whipped cream or custard.

— Entree: in formal dinners, a small "made" dish that is served as a separate course between the heavy courses. In informal meals, the chief dish of the main course . . . of meat, poultry, fish or meat substitute.

— Frappe: diluted sweetened fruit juice, frozen to a mushy consistency.

— Fondue: alight, fluffy baked food made with eggs, cheese and milk and thickened with bread or cracker crumbs. Melted chocolate made into a dipping sauce for fruits, marshmallows, cake chunks, etc. is often referred to as fondue as well.

— Fromage: the French word for cheese.

— Gumbo: West Indian plant used to flavor rich, thick Creole soup; the soup, itself, often called "gumbo."

— Julienne: to cut food into match-like strips; ergo, the title "Julienne Salad."

— Lyonnaise: seasoned with onions, parsley.

— Mignon: a French term meaning "favorite, delicate, darling." Also the meltingly tender cut of boneless tenderloin beef.

— Minestrone: Italian for thick vegetable soup.

— Mousse: French for moss or foam, describes the smooth, spongy quality. Also means certain hot dishes of smooth texture.

— Pate' de foie gras: goose liver paste.

— Petits fours: little fancy iced cakes, made by cutting sheet cakes into special shapes (squares, diamonds, etc.). Frosting is poured on and delicate decorations added.

— Ragout: a highly seasoned thick meat and vegetable stew.

— Rissole: a savory meat mixture enclosed in rich pastry and fried in deep fat.

For summer snacking

Is there anything quite like homemade cookies to have in the cookie jar for a quick energy picker-upper? Well, yes there is, if it's cookies made with nutritious wheat germ with the addition of that perennial favorite, peanut butter.

Served with a tall frosty glass of lemonade (or milk if you're a milk lover), they are the ideal summertime snack to make, put in the freezer and break out whenever there's a void in the cookie department.

For your recipe file

Wheat Germ cookies, plain and fancy

In the good old summertime cookies go naturally with ice cream and lemonade. It's a favorite treat to enjoy on the porch or patio. When cookies are the center of attention they should be homemade and extra delicious. Two wheat germ recipes given here are excellent examples of old fashioned goodness.

The wheat germ royals are an extra crisp kind of sugar cookie. Vacuum packed wheat germ lends a slight nutty flavor that makes them taste special. With decorative icing they have great eye appeal and elegance. On the other hand, for peanut butter lovers, nothing beats wheat germ peanut butter crisps. They're especially crunchy with plenty of hearty flavor and texture. Both cookie recipes are made with only the finest ingredients — lightly toasted wheat germ, real butter, fresh eggs and natural flavorings. After all, when you make cookies from scratch you want the best results possible from your efforts.

With consumers more concerned than ever over good health and good eating the demand for natural wholesome foods increases. The Kretschmer Consumer Kitchen develops wheat germ recipe ideas using nourishing ingredients and real foods. Wheat germ itself is a 100 percent natural food containing no preservatives or additives.

Convenient, ready to use wheat germ helps balance the daily diet. Just a quarter cup provides 30 percent of your RDA of vitamin B1 needed for proper energy metabolism and good muscle tone. Use wheat germ in combination with other foods from the basic four good groups to keep looking and feeling your best. Wheat germ is indeed a beautiful food.

Wheat Germ Royals

1 cup butter
1/4 cup sugar
1 egg
1/4 teaspoon almond extract
2 cups flour
1 cup vacuum packed wheat germ, regular or sugar & honey

2 teaspoons baking powder

Chocolate Stripes
Beat together butter and sugar until thoroughly blended. Beat in egg and almond extract. Stir in flour mixed with wheat germ and baking powder. Roll out dough on lightly floured surface to 1/8-inch thickness. Cut with floured cutter into 2 3/4-inch rounds. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Bake in 375 degrees oven 7 to 9 minutes or until lightly browned around edges. Transfer to cooling rack. Glaze at once with Royal Icing. Cool on racks. Drizzle Chocolate Stripes across cookies to decorate. Makes about 4 dozen cookies.

ROYAL ICING: Beat 1 egg white with 1/4 teaspoon almond extract and 1 cup powdered sugar until smooth and blended.

CHOCOLATE STRIPES: Melt 1 ounce semisweet chocolate with 1 tablespoon butter over very low heat stirring occasionally.

Wheat Germ Peanut Butter Crisps

3/4 cup butter, softened
1/2 cup crunchy peanut butter
1 cup brown sugar, packed
1 egg
1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
1 cup flour
1 cup vacuum packed wheat germ, regular or sugar & honey
3/4 cup quick cooking oats
1 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt

Beat together butter, peanut butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in egg and vanilla. Combine flour, wheat germ, oats, soda and salt. Gradually mix into peanut butter mixture. Shape level tablespoons of dough into 1 1/4-inch balls. Place on ungreased baking sheets. Flatten with bottom of glass dipped in sugar to three-eighths to 1/2-inch thickness. Bake in 350 degrees oven 8 to 10 minutes. Remove from baking sheets to cooling racks. Makes about 4 dozen.

Junior Study Club scholarship awarded to Elizabeth Yandric

A resident of Van Buren Township, Elizabeth Yandric, has been named as the 1978 recipient of the Genevieve Clark Scholarship which is awarded annually by the Belleville Junior Study Club.

To qualify, those applying for the award must be a local single female parent interested in furthering her education. In keeping with those restrictions, the scholarship was named for Genevieve Clark who, herself, was a single parent of an adopted daughter and an educator in the community.

Ms. Yandric, the mother of three children, was presented with $300 for her future endeavors; this is a $50 increase from the 1977 award and due to the profit realized by the club at its annual card party.

A den mother and library mother for Tyler Elementary School, Ms. Yandric currently is enrolled in Schoolcraft College's medical technology curriculum.

The presentation to the winner was made at the club's closing dinner May 17 at Woodstone Inn of Belleville.

A Dillman Scholarship in music from Eastern Michigan University has been awarded to Sue Sotomayor, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miguel Sotomayor of Beck Road in Belleville.

MISS SOTOMAYOR

The $1,000 Dillman Scholarships are the most prestigious offered by EMU and are awarded to students who display exceptional talent in applied music.

In vying for the scholarship, Miss Sotomayor competed with young musicians representing every field of applied music, not just her own area of piano competition. The first set of eliminations was handled by a panel of keyboard faculty with the finals held before a mixed panel of judges representing all divisions of the music department.

A senior at Belleville High School, Miss Sotomayor has been accompanist for the high school choir and the Ambassadors singing group. She has been the recipient of numerous music awards given by the BHS Music Department and has been listed in Who's Among Students.

In addition to her activities at the high school, she has also been involved in the music department at the First United Methodist Church of Belleville where she has acted as assistant conductor of the Children's Choir.

Miss Sotomayor is a piano student of Mrs. Blaine Ballard of Harmony Lane in Belleville. Her early instruction came from the late Mrs. Helen Joseph and Mrs. John Elwell of Ypsilanti.

Cindy Kohler makes TBI's Dean's List

Among those named to the Dean's List for the 1978 winter term which ended April 7 at Taylor Business Institute of Ann Arbor was Cindy Kohler of 48591 I-94 Service Dr., Belleville.

A 1975 graduate of Milan High School, Miss Kohler is enrolled in the medical secretarial program at TBI. To be named to the Dean's List a student must have a 3.2 average or better for the term.

Fly-up ceremony will 'install' Junior Scouts

For the Brownies of Troop 605, the school year will end with a Fly-up Bridging ceremony even though there are still three meetings set for June, July and August.

Those "flying up" to Junior Troop 278 are Laura Ceresko, Lisa Jazaz, Jennifer Powell, Michelle Santos, Darlene Womac and Diana Faulhaber. They will say their farewells to leaders, Mrs. Joy Duchon and Mrs. Cheryl Sykes.

Also receiving their wings and bridging patches will be the third graders from St. Anthony's Brownie Troop 515. They are Kim Wilson, Jennie Rosinski, Cindy Zaleski and Vickie Huziak. Their leaders are Mrs. Pam Hughes, Mrs. Kathy Randall and Mrs. Konat.

The first and second grade Brownies will receive their yearly stars and Brownie patches. From Troop 605, they are Christy Sykes, Jo Anna Cuchon, Sara Lozer, Laura Ober, Veronica Franzas, Shelley Faulhaber, Christa and Tina Briones, Teresa Kosiba, Renee LaPointe, Kim O'Riley, Deanne Pappas and Kathleen McKinney.

Troop 515 recipients will be Erin Daley, Toni Wilson, Peggy Clayton, Michelle Schillers, Laura Simick, Tracy Randall, Carrie Hughes, Linda and Julie Sizda, Ruth Dunchon, Michelle Konot and Samantha York.

The following Juniors will also receive badges and stars: Michelle Daley, Anne Pojowski, Colleen Gleason, Karana Briones, Susan Gaydos, Wendy Clift, Mary Wolian, Karen Novak, Jean Clark and Michelle Donnelly.

Yearly stars will go to Carolyn Huziak, Renee Kasperk, Bea Herring and Florina Bryant.

Joining the girls for the ceremony will be Mrs. Jill Karolyi, TSD; Mrs. Marlene Daley, junior leader; Mrs. Janet Pojski, assistant junior leader; Sisters Denise and Joan, families and friends.

Recent activities for the troops included camping at Hunter Lodge at Camp Linden and a Mother's Day banquet and songfest.

PM's install new officers

The regular meeting of the Past Matrons' Association of Belleville Chapter No. 73, OES, was held at the First United Methodist Church of Belleville on May 4 with Past Matron Rachel Hamilton as hostess.

Present for the 12:30 luncheon, served by some of the Church ladies, were 14 members. The retiring president, Eva Lupher, conducted a short business meeting with the chaplain, Dorothy Kellas, having the devotions.

Three of the newly elected officers who were present, Cora Bradshaw, vice-president; Frances McAtee, treasurer and Dorothy Kellas, chaplain; were installed by Florence Sugars.

The hostess presented two pencil and paper games with awards being won by Beatrice Boldt and Effie Kerbyson. Cards were sent to two members, Elda Bohl and Mae Fielder, who are ill.

Raffle results told

The 50-50 raffle sponsored by the Romulus Senior Citizens Club No. 1 was a big success according to David Ries, publicity chairman.

May during the regular club meeting with the following results: Stanley Veressi of Romulus, first prize; Irene Sedun of New Boston, second, and Kitty Hando of Romulus, third.

'Johnny Belinda' staged

"Johnny Belinda", one of the first American plays to explore the world of the deaf, will open at the Hilberry Theatre for a two-weekend run June 2.

Part of the Bonstelle Theatre Series, the play has been moved to the air-conditioned Hilberry for the comfort of patrons.

The Elmer Harris play will be presented at 8:30 p.m. June 2-3 and 9-10, as well as 2 p.m. June 4 and 11.

Guest artist Hal Youngblood, Detroit area radio personality, will play the role of Black McDonald, Belinda's father.

When "Johnny Belinda" opened on Broadway in 1940, Burns Mantle called this play "a good old-fashioned emotional evening of theatre," and Commonweal Magazine called the theme "both fresh and poignant." Jane Wyman later won an Academy Award for her portrayal of Belinda in the motion picture adaptation.

Set on an island off the coast of Nova Scotia, Canada, "Johnny Belinda" tells the story of a deaf-mute girl whose harsh world changes when a young doctor from the mainland teaches her sign language for the deaf. Raped by an Islander, she gives birth to a son whom she calls Johnny Belinda. When the father tries to steal the baby, she shoots him. She eventually is cleared by a court, however, and goes off to marry the doctor.

In the leading role of Belinda is Kim Cook of Westland. Others in the cast include Tim Holton of Birmingham, Richard Buzinski of New Baltimore, Elizabeth Gulick-Eastman of Detroit and Kim Carney of Lansing.

The play is directed by Robert T. Hazzard, with special assistance in sign language by Harmon Beekman and Shelley Daihy. Set design is by Chris Phillips, costumes by Susan Lambeth and lighting by Reid G. Johnson.

Tickets are on sale at the Wayne State Theatre Box Office, Cass and Bancroft in Detroit or by calling 577-2960.

Pilobolus troupe visit

Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts will present its final attraction of the 1977-78 Season when Pilobolus Dance Theatre arrives for three rescheduled performances, plus an extra fourth show to accommodate the demand for seats.

Originally slated to perform on May 5, 6 and 7, the highly-praised, unusually gymnastic dance troupe was forced to postpone its sold-out Detroit debut when dancer Robby Barret seriously injured his leg in rehearsal. Tickets for these three shows will be honored on the corresponding days of June 9, 10 and 11. The added performance, for which many good seats still are available, will be at 8:30 p.m. June 8.

Both new and seasoned dance fans should enjoy Pilobolus, whose unique and exciting style has brought them acclaim from audiences on the "Tonight Show", as well as audiences in Paris and on Broadway. They were named one of the top 10 cultural events of 1977 by the New York Times.

Pilobolus serves as the finale to a highly successful season of dance attractions at Music Hall Center. More than 42,000 dance fans have attended performances at the center, which offered many of the most famous and best companies in America, such as the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, the Paul Taylor Dance Company and the Twyla Tharp Dancers.

For next season, Music Hall is nearly doubling its number of dance performances, bringing in eight major dance groups and offering a wide variety of season ticket options which give considerable savings from single ticket prices.

The season ticket campaign already has exceeded last year's totals and will continue through Labor Day. People interested in season tickets should call the Music Hall subscription office at 963-6943. Some sections already are sold out for certain performances.

Pilobolus tickets are available at the Music Hall box office, 350 Madison Avenue, and by telephone at 963-7680 between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

Human hair provides warmth and protects the skin, but did you know that it is also used to predict the weather? According to The World Book Encyclopedia, meteorologists use a device called a hair hygrometer, which measures relative humidity through the changing length of hair as its absorption of moisture increases or decreases.

'Ozzie and Harriet' ideas plague today's family life

The American Family is in distress, and crucial to its survival in today's society is getting rid of ideas inherent in the "Ozzie and Harriet" phenomenon and "Peter Pan nursery schools."

"A family is a motley crew of people of changing moods in which not everybody always loves everybody else," said Dr. Paul Pearsall, author and family therapist at the recent 27th annual Young Child Conference, sponsored by the Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries and Michigan State University.

A family therapist at Sinai Hospital in Detroit for seven years, he noted that the American divorce rate has increased 700 percent since 1900 and that in the near future a full 49 out of 50 children will live in a family unit different from the traditional mother-father setting.

"No family is stronger than its weakest twosome, whether its husband and wife, father and son or whatever," he added.

Dr. Pearsall said one of the prime pressures on the family system today was stress on these "paired bond" relationships, largely due to the "new violence," failure of the schools and pervasive myths about sexuality and parenting.

"Our violent vocabularies reveal that it's suspicious to be soft or vulnerable," he explained. "Our schools undermine parental confidence by sending home notes only when children have done something bad, and nursery schools use 'cute' teaching materials instead of training children for reality."

The "American Paradox," he noted, is that society expects children to be better behaved and more rational than it expects adults to be.

The therapist said American men and women tended to deny their sexuality, vulnerability and physical health — three areas of interest in today's family research.

Concerned with today's stress on independence instead of interdependence and a lack of guidelines due to the "twilight of morality," researchers also are interested in how willing family members are to express the depth and range of their feelings with each other.

Dr. Pearsall's suggestions for individuals included parents developing a willingness to express love in front of children and for mothers to examine their sense of identity.

"Motherhood is not instinctual," he said. "And it's a myth that women with families do not have as much interest in sex as single women."

To minimize pressures on the family Dr. Pearsall advocated replacing motherhood with parenthood and taking a look at overly rigid family traditions.

"If the family is to survive, it must improve society and not expect society to improve it," he said.

Job well done

Wayne County Commissioner Edgar Harris of Taylor was on hand last week to praise three citizen volunteers for the "fantastic job" they have done for the county's nutrition program at the Rockwood Center, 22065 Huron River Drive. He presented certificates of appreciation from the Wayne County Board of Commissioners to Jean Mazurek (from left), Victoria Schmidt and Dorothy Doyle. The three women help serve hot noon meals daily to seniors at the center and also deliver meals to shut-ins.

Two EMU co-eds become members of Phi Kappa Phi

Two Belleville-Romulus residents recently were inducted into the Eastern Michigan University chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, a national honor society.

The inductees were Paula Scituro, a senior at Eastern and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P.V. Costello of Santa Clara, Belleville, and Sandra Slater, a 1977 graduate of the Ypsilanti university and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gates of Dudley, Penna.

Miss Scituro is a fine arts major, while Ms. Slater majored in elementary education.

Phi Kappa Phi is an honor society whose purpose is to promote the pursuit of excellence in all fields of higher education.

In other college news:

Four area residents will be receiving their degrees in ceremonies next Wednesday at Bob Jones University in Greenville, S.C.

The degree recipients will be Bruce Eaton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Eaton of Harris Road, Belleville; certificate of completion in the Institute of Christian Service; John Swaffer, the son of Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Swaffer of Hull Road, Belleville; bachelor of arts degree; Naomi Clark, the daughter of The Rev. and Mrs. Harold Henson Clark of Gibraltar, Flat Rock, certificate of completion in the School of Business Administration; and Melinda Greutman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Greutman of Red Cedar, Flat Rock, certificate of completion in the School of Business Administration.

Belleville resident Deana Marie Halcomb of Ormond Drive recently was named to the dean's list for the winter semester at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

To be eligible, a WMU student must have compiled a 3.5 grade point average in at least 14 hours of graded work.

Energy Days planned

An energy-packed program, featuring hundreds of workshops, demonstrations and exhibits is slated for visitors at 4-H Energy Days '78 June 23-24 at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

Focusing on the theme, "There's a New Day Coming," the two-day event will look at the energy situation today, alternative energy sources for tomorrow and what can be done in the meantime to conserve energy and reduce costs, according to Dr. Lowell Rotherth, the program's coordinator.

Sponsored by the MSU Cooperative Extension Service 4-H Youth Program in cooperation with the Michigan Energy Administration, the entire event is open to the public at no charge. The program begins on June 23 with workshops on solar and wind energy, building electric cars and bicycling.

Throughout the day on Friday and Saturday, more than 60 commercial energy exhibits will be on display in Spartan Stadium. Exhibits include a solar greenhouse, wood-burning stoves and furnaces, insulation and many other items.

On June 24, a special program features demonstrations, exhibits and performances by thousands of Michigan 4-Hers.

"The program has something for everyone in the family," said Dr. Norman A. Brown, Michigan 4-H program director.

"The day's activities include bicycle racing, dog relays, omelet making and applying clown make-up. It's a great way to have fun and see today's kids in action," Brown concluded.

Energy Days '78 is the finale to 4-H Exploration Days. Each year Exploration Days attracts more than 4,500 4-Hers to the MSU campus for three days of action-oriented learning. The youngsters choose from 158 different learning options that range from Michigan mountaineering and crafts to African dancing and judo.

For a brochure and additional information on the 4-H Energy Days '78 program, contact the Cooperative Extension Service office.

YWCA's Job Finders Day aims at woman's plight

A YWCA of Western Wayne County-sponsored Job Finders Day will focus on the woman who has a need for a job, yet might be limited by lack of skills or direction in which to turn.

The program is slated for June 8 at the YWCA Building, 26279 Michigan Avenue, between Beech Daly and The program is slated for June 8 at the YWCA Building, 26279 Michigan Avenue, between Beech Daly and John Daly, in Inkster.

There will be no frills, no fancy lunches, just basic, valuable, concise information on how to obtain a job, a Y spokesman said. A bag lunch may be brought.

The program will begin with registration at 9 a.m. and will continue through to 3 p.m. The fee for the day is $3.

The following participants in a panel discussion will give information regarding resources in the community: Charmaine Harris, branch manager, MESOC, "Telling the Michigan Job Service Story"; Jack Betts, "Services of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation"; and Shirley Shockley, "The Role of Wayne County Community College and Your Future Employment."

Representatives from two areas of Civil Service, as well as several large companies who have women in varied-level positions will be present for vital information about their respective companies; the benefits, salary scales and qualifications needed to apply for positions as a woman re-entering the job market.

R. M. Elliot will represent State Civil Service; Victoria Ribbron will represent Wayne County Civil Service. Companies represented will be City National Bank, Joanne Froelich; Detroit Edison Company, Jim Vary; Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line, Echo Wilson; and Automobile Club of Michigan, Tommie Robbins.

The afternoon sessions will offer a choice of two out of four workshops. The workshops will be "Effective Interviews" by Gail Brooks, employment manager, University of Detroit; "Make That First Good Impression With Application Forms" by Albert Martin, Ford Motor Co. "How to be An Assertive Job Seeker" by Leslie Sabbath, assistant director of counseling, University of Michigan - Dearborn; "Identifying Your Skills" by Douglas Hoxeng, counseling staff, University of Michigan - Dearborn. Pre-registration is requested.

Dinner-dance fetes jubilarian couple

The Cultural Center in Plymouth was the setting for the recent 50th anniversary dinner-dance, honoring Mr. and Mrs. George Dorow of Ecorse Road, Romulus.

The April 29 celebration was given by the couple's six children, their wives and husbands. They are Mr. and Mrs. Al Dorow of Westland, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Dorow of Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Dorow of Garden City, Mr. and Mrs. Norman (Barbara) Richardson of Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Shirley) LeMay of Howell and the Donald (Lois) Draytons of Plymouth.

The guests of honor welcomed 175 guests, including Mrs. Dorow's sister, Mrs. Herman (Emma) Bragenzer of Romulus, who was maid of honor at the couple's wedding. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Doerfler and Joseph Kessler of Menasha, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bragenzer of Kenosha, Wis.

The Dorows are lifelong residents of Romulus and attend St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Westland. Dorow is a Wayne County Road Commission retiree. They are the grandparents of 13 and have one great-grandchild.

Adding to the happy occasion for the Dorows were congratulatory letters received from President Jimmy Carter, Sen. Robert Griffin and Mayor William Oakley of Romulus.

Churchill reigns as regional champ

Kielty's last put turns the tide

Tom Mooradian, Sports Editor

And this is an obstacle?

Wearing a smile as she polishes off one of the hurdles, Wayne Memorial's Jill Preston has the gold medal in the low hurdles stashed away after winning the Class A regional championship on the strength of a 15.8 effort. Miss Preston will join a host of other area athletes to make the trip to the Class A state finals which will be held June 3rd at Brighton High School.

Though they encountered some unexpected turbulence in the form of a sudden downpour and "though the script wasn't the way we had originally wrote it," according to Coach Fred Price, Livonia Churchill thinclads came through under pressure to win the Class A Regional Track & Field Championships held Saturday at Farmington High.

The meet was delayed nearly an hour because of a rain storm which started around 4 p.m. and led to slower results in its wake.

Churchill, which has always been a key figure in track, has come close to winning the regional twice when the Chargers finished second best. They have also finished third three times since 1970 when the school doors were first opened.

Price's athletes had a narrow 38½ to 37 3/4 victory over North Farmington. And Price pointed out that the sterling performance by senior Walt Kielty was the decisive factor in the outcome of the meet.

"We were trailing by four points and awaiting the results of the final event, the shot put," explained Price. "Dave was down to his last throw and trailed Salem's Bob Dasher. Dave managed to throw the shot 53 feet, 10 inches.

The sudden rains added to the suspense as track officials announced that the shot put competition would be continued indoors.

After everything was set up inside the school's gym, the officials suddenly reversed their decision and decided that the weather had improved and conditions were favorable to finish the meet out of doors.

Kielty, under pressure throughout the entire meet, heaved the shot 53 feet, 10 inches, eclipsing Salem's Bob Dasher's effort of 53 feet, 2½ inches to move into fourth place which gave the Chargers the needed points to put them over the top.

"We are very happy to win," said Price. "There were surprises in our script, but we got what we needed and that gave up the victory."

Price explained that the surprises were in the area where he figured some kids would finish first or second - and didn't - and some were not expected to contribute points and did.

"We scored in 10 of 16 events and it's kind of unusual because everyone who scored has qualified to run in the state meet," Price noted.

The state finals, incidentally, will be staged June 3 at Flint Northwestern (Class A); the Class B finalists will meet on the same day but at Marysville.

Churchill managed to win the 440-yard relay regional crown with a team made up of Chuck Watkins, Bob Monahan, Joe Stchur and Doran Mason. The foursome was clocked in 44.88 and held off a strong late surge put up by the North Farmington lineup.

Price had the winning combination for the 88-yard relay, a team that is completely composed of underclassmen. The Chargers went with Tom Goslin, Bob Monoha, Austin Ryan and Mason who were clocked in 1:32.9.

Kielty, who was hurting from an ankle injury, was charged with two fouls in the discus and managed to come back with a toss of 155 feet, 10 inches to earn a silver medal and

Gals claim 4 regional track titles

While the weather was kicking up a storm, Wayne and John Glenn also were busy brewing a storm of their own at the Class A regional track and field championships held at Farmington Saturday.

Midway through the meet a sudden downpour forced athletes to find cover, but not before local girls stashed away at least four gold medals.

Leading the gold rush was Glenn's multi-talented athlete Kathy MacDougall who captured the regional title in the long jump with a leap of 17 feet, 6 inches, placed second in both the 100 and 220-yard dashes with performances of 11.6 and 26.8, respectively.

She also anchored the winning 880-yard relay team made up of Cathy Pangrazzi, Cheryl Williams, and Jean Burt.

Glenn's 440-yard relay team also was second best in the field as Lori Pfeiffer, Dawn Keast, Miss Williams and Miss Burt were clocked in 54 seconds flat.

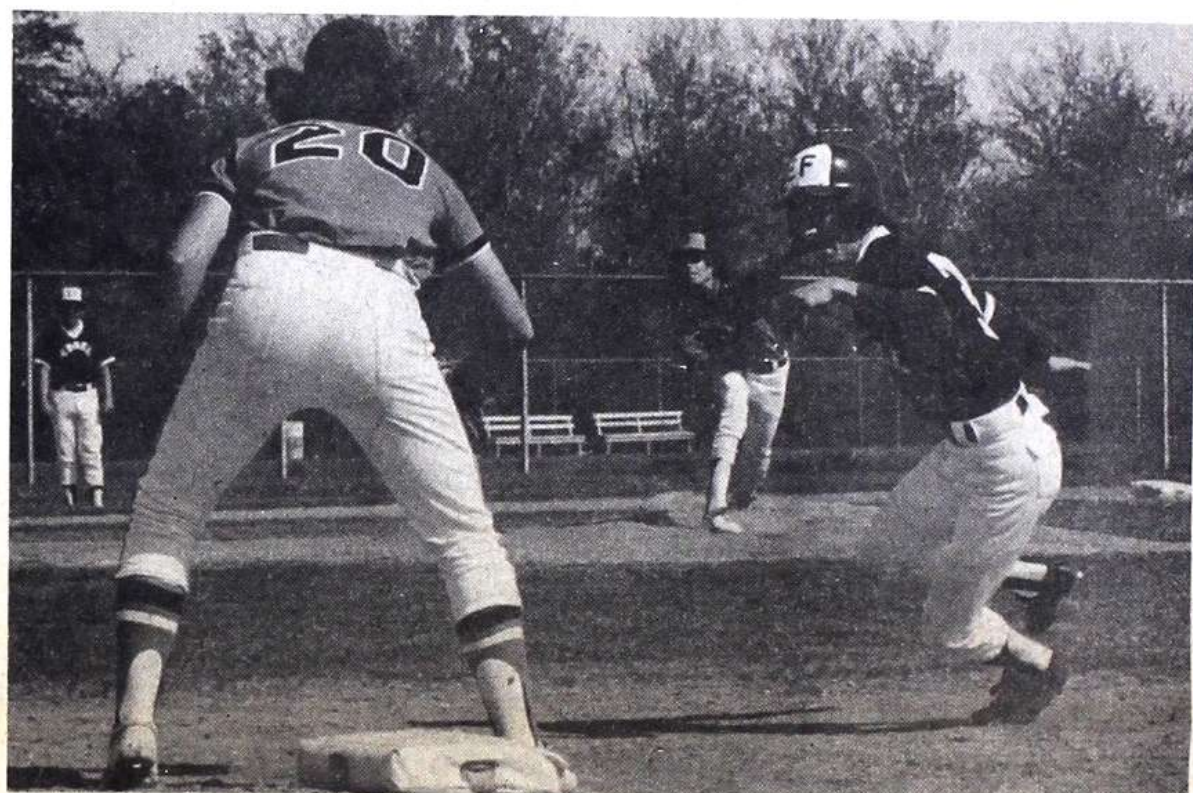

Miss Burt came back and finished third in the 100 in 12.1. Williams received a fourth place medal for her efforts in the 220.

Mercy won the regional with Livonia Stevenson and Westland John Glenn finishing second and third respectively. Wayne was right behind the leaders in fourth.

"We had some outstanding performances from some of our girls and disappointing ones from others," said Glenn Coach Cheryl Caughey. "We were hoping to finish as high as second because we knew Mercy was just too strong for us this season."

Wayne's versatile Jill Preston and Lisa Nilbert represented the Zebras on the winner's dias. Miss Preston was clocked in 15.8 over the low

Making sure that this Edsel Ford runner doesn't take too big of a leadoff, Belleville pitcher Stan Price whirls and fires the ball to first baseman Charles Childers. Price didn't get the hitting support from his teammates again as the Tigers bowed to their Suburban 8 Conference rival on Monday 5-2. Out of the conference title picture, Belleville will attempt top salvage the season on Friday when it will host Romulus in the pre-district qualifying round.

An epic regional for Blaha, Koger

Rick Blaha and Chris Koger are leaving their best for the last.

Blaha, a senior at Wayne High, and Koger, also a senior but at Belleville, split four gold medals at Class A regional track & field meets last Saturday.

The 18-year-old Blaha turned in a stunning two mile performance at Farmington, then came back after a sudden downpour to edge Churchill's Tobin Jones in the mile for two epic victories.

Meanwhile, Koger showed that he is among the best high jumpers in the state by successfully negotiating 6 feet, 8 inches at the regional at Monroe to pick up a gold medal. He also leaped 21 feet, 3 inches to win the long jump competition.

Joining the two regional champs is Livonia Franklin's Dave Bowen, who won the 440 at Farmington and Franklin's mile relay team made up of Bill Flannigan, Nate Kean, Phil

Raiding prep ball camps

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Sports Editor

There is some meaningful hostility in most coaches and on all plateaus: from little league to professional sports.

Sandlot baseball managers are infamous for crossing over to leagues and raiding them of blue chip players, enticing them with promises of the big times and more if they would "just only sign and play with their team."

With the high school baseball season just about over, the raids will - if they haven't already - start as coaches in the Adray, Mickey Mantle, Babe Ruth, American Legion and you name it league maneuver into position to whip up the cream of the crop for their own.

One coach who would like to end "these raids" is venerable Norm Hoenes who for the past decade has been fielding a fine crop of baseball players at Westland John Glenn.

He says he feels if sandlot and prep coaches worked together they would accomplish more than when they pull against one another. "For example the Adray uses players 18 and up," pointed out Hoenes, "if they would leave the 18 year olds alone and let the Legion teams use them they would have a ready made farm system."

"The managers use the enticement to lure these kids that they will be playing a better brand of caliber of ball," Hoenes continued, "but that's not necessarily so - the Legion has excellent ball and it is an excellent stage to learn and continue one's career."

Hoenes has been coaching the Wayne 111 Post entry in the American Legion league and is preparing for his third campaign. That is, if the Adray League coaches don't raid his territory and make off with his players.

Gordie is guest speaker

Gutkowski may be an unfamiliar name on these pages, but the former All-State, All-American prep cager who co-captained Michigan State University's varsity cage team a couple of years ago, has invited a few notables to speak at his summer basketball camp at Bishop Borgess.

Gutkowski is presently the head coach for the Spartans in that Redford-based high school.

His guest-speaker's roster includes none other than Gordie Davis, the ANP's Coach of the Year, and Billy Joe Young, Garden City East's outstanding skipper.

Davis led John Glenn to a 22-3 record and in that package was the undisputed Northwest Suburban Conference title and the district championship. He also earned the Detroit News' Metro Coach of the Year award.

Young, who has had some great teams and players at East, is a strong disciplinarian who stresses fundamental basketball.

It's also rumored that Billy Joe is bowing out as head coach at East - and I'll believe that only when I see it next November when the teams and coaches return to camp.

Gutkowski also has a commitment from Dick Vitale, the - oh, you know who is - to appear at the Bishop Borgess camp.

He got the commitment, however, when Dick was athletic director at University of Detroit. Much has changed and Vitale is now the Pistons' head coach. Will he keep that engagement?

"I talked to Dick and he said, 'I told you I'd be there and I'll be there.'"

Is that all he said, Ron?

By the way Gutkowski said that there are still some openings for the camp that will be held during June 19 through June 30. For more information, please contact the school or telephone 255-1100 for more information.

Cage acclaim for Romulus gals

Ralph McKenzie, Westland John Glenn's hottest pitcher, cooled Great Lakes 8 Conference leader, Monroe, and scattered four hits to lift the Rockets to a 3-2 victory and into the pre-district Class A playoffs.

McKenzie, a righthanded junior who has amassed a 3-1 personal pitching record, was in trouble only in the second inning when Monroe managed to tie the game at 2-all. But the Westlanders broke the deadlock with what proved to be the decisive run in the fourth.

"When the chips were down our kids came through," said Coach Norm Hoenes. "We don't know who our next game will be played, but we have Brighton for the pre-district. The winner of that game will advance to the district playoffs at Ypsilanti."

McKenzie struck out two but walked four in pitching a four hitter.

Glenn got to loser Tom Sherman for a run in the first inning as Craig Walker doubled and scored when Doug Martin singled. The Rockets made it a 2-0 game in the next inning on a single by Tim Ruark who stole second and made it home on Bill Robertson's base hit.

After Monroe tied it up in the third, Glenn put the decisive run on the board in the fourth thanks to Irwin's single; a stolen base and Robertson's second hit of the game.

However, Glenn had its troubles (Continued on 4th Sports)

Wayne runners need help

Wayne Memorial, despite a respectable 4-1 league record, is in troubled waters and will need help in order to finish atop of the Great Lakes 8 Conference girls' track league.

"What we're going to have to do now," insisted Coach Floyd Carter, after his team defeated Riverview 86-50 last Thursday, "is to finish ahead of undefeated Monroe at the league meet."

"If we win at the league, and Monroe is second, then we will share the title," Carter continued. "However, if Monroe should finish lower than second and we win the league meet, we would win the title outright."

But that's a lot of ifs. Monroe is definitely the favored to walk away with their second consecutive championship.

The league championships will be decided on Thursday, May 25, beginning at 3:30 p.m. at Lincoln Park High School.

Meanwhile, spurred by Kathy Weyand's record-setting pace in the 2-mile, the Zebras had no trouble putting down Riverview. Miss Weyand turned in a 12:18 to rip her previous record of 12:22 for the event.

Wayne also received a pair of victories off of the efforts of Lisa Nibert who cleared 5'5" in the high jump and leaped 16 feet in the long jump.

Kevin Cieszkowski's leap of 20 feet, 5 inches was second best at the regional. The Churchill athlete lost his bid for a gold when Garden City West's Geza Kogler soared 21 feet, 1/4 inch.

Churchill also qualified Tobin Jones, James Sheridan and Rick Austin for the state when the trio finished third in their specialties.

Sheridan tied the school record and posted a personal best when he cleared the bar at 12 feet, 7 inches in the pole vault; Jones was third in the 2-mile run with a 9:37.2 and also third in the mile with a 4:30.1 while Austin earned acclaim from his coach and teammates when he crossed the finish line third for the 220-yard dash, "one of those pleasant surprises we didn't look for," according to Price.

What are Churchill's chances at the state?

Price says that he hopes to see Kiely place in both the discus and the shot, while Jones will be in the midst of the battle for honors in the mile.

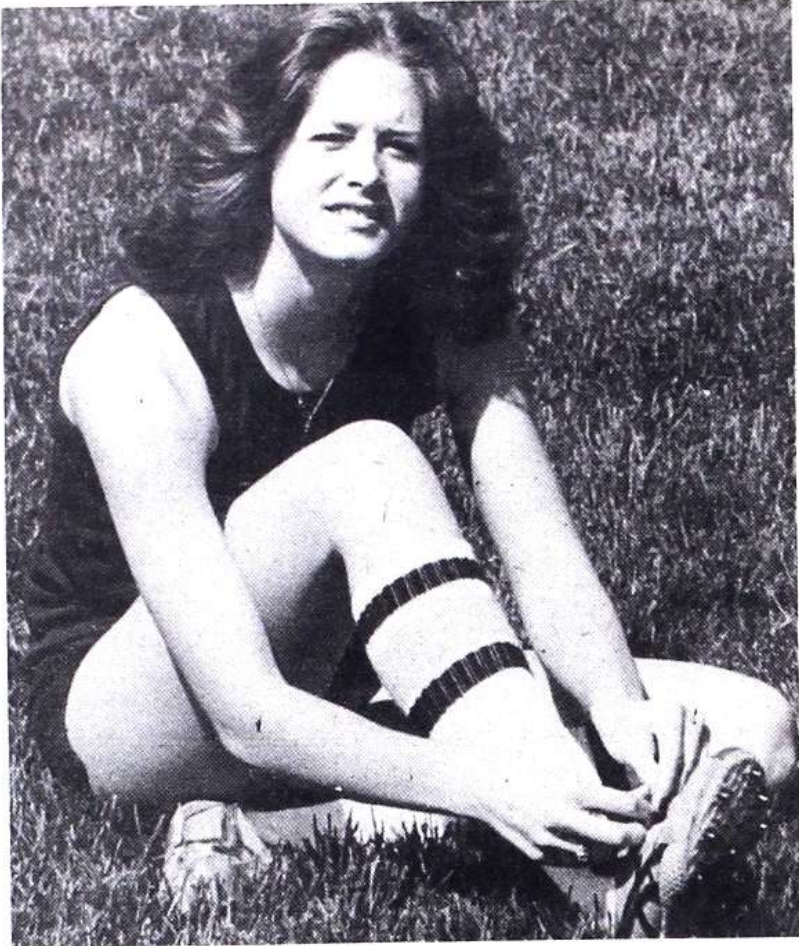

"Our relay teams have a lot of health," Coach Price added, "And if Austin is healthy — he is suffering from a pulled hamstring — we're going to score in the relays because the team, though they don't have a

4 local athletes earn letters

Among the 77 athletes who were awarded letters for their accomplishments during the year at the University of Michigan-Dearborn campus were four local athletes.

Michael McCusker and Scott Smith, both of Westland, were awarded letters for their participation on the school's varsity cross country team. Coach Tony Mifsud's squad finished with a 9-1 record.

Sitting pretty

Wayne Memorial's Lisa Nibert is sitting pretty as she ties her track shoes in preparation for workouts. Miss Nibert cleared 5 feet, 6 inches to qualify for the state finals in the high jump, an event she won at the regionals held at Farmington High School last Saturday. She has the regional record at 5 feet, 8 inches and is a strong contender for the state title.

Rains can't stop Canton's linksmen

Despite an off and on drizzle, the Canton men's golf league survived Mother Nature's erratic behavior to finish its second round of competition.

Mike Mattingly and Paul Oberhelman continued to set the pace in the league as they swept five points from Bob Bednarz and Larry Slade to remain a half-point up on Glen and Don Ponte who were forced to settle in the runners-up spot after taking 4 1/2 points from their rivals, Dennis Stuenkel and John Seewald.

Tony Valenti and Mike Roemer shot their best rounds of the season as they both posted 40's while Gordon Lapiere was one stroke back.

Here are last week's results at Fellow's Creek Golf Course: Lindsey-Watt 4, Ryan-White 1; Argonis-Lapierre 5, McGee-Johnson 0; Valenti-Kraft 4 1/2, Horrey-Gabriel 1/2; Thomas-Humberger 4 1/2, Mogelnicki-Natoli 1/2; Eminger-Sheets 5, Brock-Lawrence 0; Rehberg-Riggs 2 1/2, Pitz-Glover 2 1/2; Mattingly-Oberhelman 5, Slade-Bednarz 0; Poten-Ponte 5, Stueben-Seewald 1/2; Canning-Young 5, Lally-Lyndrup 0; Hoffman-Yuchas 4 1/2, Koers-Koers 1/2.

The standings are as follows: Mattingly-Oberhelman 10, Ponte-Ponte 9 1/2, Watt-Lindley 9, Kraft-Valenti 9, Canning-Young 9, Eminger-Sheets 8, Gabriel-Horrey 5 1/2, Hoffman-Yuchas 5 1/2, and Brock-Lawrence 5.

Meanwhile, Churchill shouldn't encounter very much turbulence, competition-wise, at the Western Six Conference championships scheduled for May 31 at Farmington Harrison. The Chargers subdued Waterford Mott, their closest challenger, 92-66, and should repeat as the league champ for the sixth consecutive year.

They'll take a 64 over-all record into the final league meet with Plymouth Canton and Canton, winless this year, also should pose little problem for the champs.

"We're 64 on the year," offered Price, "and that's probably one of the worst dual meet records we have had in the past eight years."

Wayne seeks tennis players

The Wayne Parks and Recreation Department is planning a summer tennis league for adult and junior players who have "some experience," according to Larry Wood, league director.

League play will follow the World Team Tennis format, and will begin the week of June 19 and continue through the week of August 10. There is a $5 registration fee for the eight weeks of play.

The fee must be paid at the Wayne Community Center, Howe and Annapolis Rds., before or on June 12. The number of entries is limited and men must be Wayne residents, while in the boy's and girl's leagues, the players must attend the Wayne-

Westland Community Schools.

For more information, please telephone the parks and recreation department at 721-7400.

The times and age groups are as follows: 18-years-old and over: Tuesday from 6:30 p.m. until 9; 12-14 boys, Monday, from 12:30 p.m. until 3; 12-14 girls, Tuesday, from 12:30 p.m. until 3; 15-17 boys, Wednesday from 12:30 p.m. until 3, and 15-17 girls, Thursday, from 13:30 p.m. until 3.

Cherry Hill goes on rampage: scores 24 runs on 22 hits

Cherry Hill baseball coach Ken Mientkiewicz would have liked to have banked some of the runs and hits his team collected against Clarenceville for a future date.

What the Spartans did was to cash in on 22 hits to overwhelm Clarenceville 24-8 in an out of league slugfest.

It was the worst debacle that Mientkiewicz or the Spartans have been involved in and a 14-run first inning which featured nine doubles in that inning alone highlighted the game.

Cherry Hill's battery batted around twice as Clarenceville futilely changed three pitchers. Mike McPhil, the starter, failed to get an out and sustained the loss, while Brian Hewitt, getting some help in the fifth, chalked up the victory.

Hewitt struck out seven, walked two and gave up six hits before Mientkiewicz relieved him for Jerome Potvin.

Larry Baker accounted for four of the 22 Spartan hits and drove in four runs, while Jeff Bilek pounded out three for five including two RBI's. Mark Friar slashed a two-run triple in the third, while in the opening frame Mark Buck and Bilek each had a couple of doubles and Ron Sosnowski, Tim Hoffer, Mike Doyle, Baker and Potvin also had doubles.

Cherry Hill could have used some of those runs against Garden City West. West erupted for nine runs in the fifth inning and went on to a 11-2 victory over their Tri-River Conference rivals.

Steve Campbell was in control all the way as he scattered three-hits, including a single in the second inning to Doyle, a sixth inning double to Sosnowski and a triple to Searcy in the seventh to seal his victory. Loser Buck went five innings before Doyle and Potvin replaced him. Doyle failed to get an out in the fifth and Potvin immediately took over.

Campbell lost his bid for a shutout in the last of the seventh when, with one away, Baker walked, Hewitt then flew out and with two outs Hoffer also drew a base on balls. Searcy then came through with a triple to right center, scoring both runs.

Cherry Hill padded its conference record to 6-4 as the Spartans ripped Riverside 11-8 on Rick Searcy's eight-hitter. Searcy needed help from Hoffer in the seventh after the starter got himself in a jam and allowed six runs.

Sosnowski, who is among the league's leading hitters (.428) hit for the cycle as he hammered a homer in the fourth with Buck and Searcy aboard and picked up three other hits including a single, double and triple in five appearances at the plate. The senior third baseman also batted in six runs.

Buck had three for four and three RBI's, while Searcy and Hewitt split four hits between them.

In the five-run fourth inning, Don Boren led off with a single and raced to second as Hewitt cracked a single to left, then Hoffer fanned and Searcy walked, loading the bases. Buck then singled in two runs and Sosnowski followed with his third homer of the campaign, a three-run blast that went into deep left center field.

The league race remained the same as the teams entered the following week of the regular season. Taylor Kennedy, the defending league champ, has a full-game edge (7-1) over Garden City West (8-2), followed by Melvindale (6-3), Cherry Hill (6-4), (Continued on 5th Sports)

Injuries are hurting Belleville tracksters

Wading through a rash of injuries, Belleville track Coach Dave Medley was still able to put together a lineup to beat Livonia Bentley 84-74 last Thursday.

The victory lifted the Tigers to a 3-3 Suburban 8 Conference record, but the Belleville coach doesn't expect to go into next Wednesday's conference championships with an over 500 mark.

Medley's thinclads will host Dearborn today (May 24) and the power-laten Pioneers have too much in every department for the Tigers.

"At the beginning of the season I said we lacked depth and the rash of injuries lately has just compounded our problem," said Medley. "We lack depth and can't stand up to teams that have the numbers."

Belleville does have Chris Koger who came away from the regionals at Monroe with a pair of gold medals after winning the high jump and long jump competitions. Koger cleared 6 feet 8 in the high jump and narrowly missed at 6 feet, 9. He won the long jump with a 21 feet, 3 inch effort. He had no peer at Bentley last week.

Dexter Hubbard assured the Tigers of victories in the sprint relays against the Livonians as he made up huge deficits to win at the wire. Along with helping Belleville take the 440 and 880 yard relays, Hubbard hit the wire in 10.3 to win the 100-yard dash.

Belleville dominated the high hurdles with Scott Straight who was clocked in 15.2 and won the lows on Brian Brinkerhoff's 39.6 effort.

Belleville carried a 5-5 over-all record into the final week of dual meet competition.

Meet results: Belleville 87, Livonia Bentley 71

Coach Basel: 'But we were a disappointment at Regionals'

Glenn goes all out and jolts N. Farmington

The enchantment of beating North Farmington quickly dissipated for Coach Barry Basel's Rockets at Westland John Glenn who came up, in Basel's words: "with a disappointing performance at the regionals."

Glenn knocked off North 85-73 in a head-on confrontation last Thursday, but the Westlanders lost their polish at the Class A regionals held at Farmington on Saturday. "Our team performed below par," said Coach Basel later, commenting on the regionals. "I really don't know what happened. After two excellent dual meets - against Churchill and North - I felt we were ready."

Glenn qualified a mile relay team for the state finals thanks to the combined efforts of Randy Gabrys,

Greg Houfley, Mark Johnson and Jim Green who were clocked in the third best time of 1:30.4. (The top three finishes in each of the 16 events qualified for the state finals which will be staged June 3rd at Flint Northwestern.)

Glenn also received a fourth place effort from Rick Pinkerton in the discus. He had a toss of 148 feet, 2 inches.

Meanwhile, Glenn built its North-west Conference record at 3-1 and its over-all mark at 7-2 at the expense of North Farmington.

"That was a little more pleasing," sighed Basel who forced his league rivals to take a second look at his team.

Livonia Franklin's Bob Holmes said about the unexpected outcome of the North-Glenn meet: "We figured that North had the edge, but now we're going to have to evaluate our strengths and weaknesses here is a possibility that we could finish third at the league meet if things don't go right for us."

Franklin is the host for the 1978 conference championships which are scheduled for 6:30 p.m. (finals) on Wednesday, May 24.

Against North, Glenn's Greg Houfley accounted for two of the Rockets' eight first places. He leaped 19 feet, 1 1/2 inches in the long jump and ran a 53 flat for the quarter-mile.

Cherry Hill is perfect again

For the fourth consecutive year Cherry Hill owns a perfect Tri-River Conference dual meet record in track and field.

Coach Joe Grasley's Spartans stretched their incredible winning streak to 31 straight, turning back Southgate 113-45 in the league finale.

The 31 straight wins stands as a league record and is probably the longest prep winning streak in any league in the state.

Grasley was pleased with his team, but voiced concern over the pending league championships which were scheduled for Wednesday at Garden City West. West is coming on strong in the stretch and displayed excellent balance at the Class A regional at Farmington on Saturday.

"It's definitely going to be a three-team race in the league," Grasley offered. "West and Schafer could stop us from winning our fourth consecutive championship."

Grasley went on to say that "it will be a very close meet."

Against Southgate, Cherry Hill stashed away 11 out of a possible 16 first places. Tom Minor contributed three of those victories as he dominated the high and low hurdles and ran a 25.2 to win the 220-yard dash.

Ramon Lara, a sophomore, picked up two firsts, taking the 880-yard run in 2:04.8 and the mile run on a 4:36.1 effort.

Meet results: Cherry Hill 113, Southgate 45

Borgess ends Franklin streak

"We knew that they were tough. But we didn't perform up to our potential."

That's how Livonia Franklin track Coach Bob Holmes' analyzed the Patriots' 90-67 setback to Bishop Borgess which snapped the Livonians' 12 meet victory string that they had stretched over the period of the last two years.

"Whenever you lose there has to be some disappointment and you wonder if there wasn't something you could have done to change the outcome."

Franklin salvaged only four of the 16 first places with Dave Bowen accounting for two of them. Bowen, a senior, leaped 19 feet, 8 inches in the long jump to pace a Franklin sweep of the event.

Later, Bowen covered the quarter-mile in 51.2 to beat Bishop Borgess' Mike Taylor across the finish line by three-tenths of a second.

Franklin also won the 880-yard relay with the combination of Jeff Williams, Nate Kean, Paul Berry and Dave Bowen who were clocked in 1:32.1, a mere one-tenth of a second faster than the Bishop Borgess entry.

Don Boka had a toss of 154 feet, 3 inches to win the discus, the only other Patriot first place.

They're 'super stars'

They had to compete in a variety of sports and athletic events and when the tally was completed Angie McClendon (above, from left) won the title of Wayne's Parks and Recreation's "super star". The other award recipients included Deanna Leverenz, second place, and Ruth Garrigos, third place. Fourth-place finisher Alicia Jefferson

And the game goes on

Salem erased from playoffs

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Sports Editor
Like the show, the game also must go on.
But, for Plymouth Salem and Coach Brian Gillies, the game is over for them in the race for the coveted Class A state baseball title.
Farmington Harrison brought the curtains down on Salem last week by shutting out the Rocks 1-0 in the pre-district matchup.
"It was a costly loss," Gillies admitted, "it left us with only the league season to complete. I really didn't expect this."

Losing pitcher Bruce Piper went the distance, gave up seven hits and walked one but gave up a fourth inning run which proved fatal for the Rocks. In that inning Harrison got to him for a single, walk and double.
Salem struck for a pair of doubles in the late innings but couldn't put anything together. Paul Dillon drilled a sixth inning two-bagger but was left stranded and teammate Matt Etienne laced a double in the seventh but remained on base as Harrison tightened up its defenses and held on.
Salem however is very much alive in the Suburban 8 Conference title race where it is one of the front-runners. The Rocks are 7-3 on the year and in first place going into the week of action.

They dropped an extra inning heart-breaker to Dearborn 4-3 which also may prove costly in the long run. Etienne, charged with the loss, struck out eight and walked four. Winner Chris Dequillo scattered five hits.
Salem tied it up in the top of the seventh as Joe Goodsir walked, stole second and, with two away, Mike Michalek latched on to a double scoring the tying run.

Earlier, in the fifth the Rocks rallied for two runs after two were out. Michalek's single again got things rolling, then Dillon walked and a passed ball moved Mike to third. Dillon successfully stole second and the catcher chose to throw to third and hit Michalek in the back with the ball. Michalek came home and when Dillon bolted for third, the ensuing throw also wound up as an error, allowing him to score.

It's Belleville vs. Romulus

While Belleville High's baseball stock dipped last week, Romulus' took a sharp upward climb as the Eagles saw what a healthy Mike Marsiglia can do.

The ace Romulus hurler, injured during a pre-season indoor practice, looked 100 percent recovered as he humbled Oak Park 4-1 in the first game of a twin bill.

But whether Marsiglia can stop Belleville is the question.

Romulus and Belleville are scheduled to meet on the Belleville diamond Friday at 4 p.m. in a pre-district playoff game to determine which team will qualify for the district tournament slated for Ypsilanti High.

Poised for action

Poised for action is Belleville's Charles Childers who faced a tough Edsel Ford pitcher in last Monday's Suburban 8 Conference confrontation. Childers and his teammates managed to get only four hits in digesting a 5-2 setback as they continue their slump. Coach Dan Fisher's Tigers hope to pull out of their nosedive on Friday when they host neighboring Romulus in a pre-district Class A playoff matchup.

"Mike looked 100 percent O.K.," said Romulus Coach Dennis Stoh who was quick to point out that this was the first time his team had managed to get in a game in 17 days. Persistent rains cancelled most of the schedule the past two weeks.
Marsiglia worked seven innings and in that span he struck out six and walked one. It was his first complete game of the year and evened up his personal record to 1-1.
Loser Bob Snyder gave up three runs in the opening frame as John Blzelak singled, moved to second when Russ Ayers walked, Mike Williams singled, knocking in one run and Steve Venier followed with a two-run double.
Romulus put its final run on the board in the sixth on a double by Williams and a single by Mike Brooks.
Romulus made it a clean sweep thanks to Ayers' seven-hit pitching efforts which paved the way to a 5-2 victory in the second game. Ayers notched seven strikeouts and walked two while loser Bob Lubanski was touched for two runs in the third and three in the fifth. Oak Park broke the goose eggs with a two-run spurt in the top of the sixth.
Doug Daniels started the two-run third with a single, then Lubanski walked Dwayne Parker and Williams' single drove in one run and Ayers stroked a run-scoring single to give the Eagles a 2-0 lead.
A single by Venier, a double by Williams and a passed ball scored one of the three fifth inning runs. Ayers' sacrificed Williams home while Summers' single and Blzelak's double produced the final Romulus run.
Williams, a senior who has looked outstanding at and behind the plate, is cracking the ball around the diamond at a .410 clip.
"He's one of the best all-around players I've seen," said Stoh whose Eagles will be at home on Thursday to host Ann Arbor Pioneer.
Meanwhile, lean days - and very lean at that - have befallen the Tigers at Belleville. Coach Dan Fisher dropped three last week, losing to Plymouth Salem, 12-2, falling to Trenton 3-1 and yielding to Bentley 14-5.
"We just can't seem to put anything together," said Fisher. "We're going through a real down period and the defense is hurting us a lot."
Fisher pointed out that because of the team's 3-7 league record, "we're out of the title picture, so we're gunning for the districts."

They're second best

When the Wayne Parks and Recreation Department stages its next racquetball tournament bet that Sheryl Chomiuk (from left) and Caye Martel will try harder. They finished second at the recent tour-namment and, you know what the saying goes about people who are second. The two runners-up display plaques presented by the local recreation department for their accomplishment.

Glenn, East split

with a determined Garden City East team who receive a six-hit pitching performance from Joe Emery and a 13-5 victory in the first game.
Glenn bounced back in the night cap and won a 5-1 battle.
In the opener, pitcher Pat Kaltenbach, who hasn't won since his first start, lasted 2 1-3 innings, and sustained his fifth loss in six outings. McKenzie relieved him and finished the third, then Hoenes called upon Jim Demaray.
Ruark collected two hits off of Emery who was the recipient of a porous Rocket defense that committed five bobbles.
Robertson went the distance.

struck out six and survived 10 walks to get credit for the win. That victory evened up his personal record to 2-2.
Glenn cashed in for three runs in the first inning as Martin walked, stole second then scored on Irwin's double. John Mervyn singled, Irwin stopping at third, but later scored on a wild pitch. Mervyn eventually came home via a passed ball.
Glenn is standing on a 3-5 league record as the week began. The Westlanders were to face North Farmington on Monday and Franklin on Tuesday - both teams are very much in the thick of the conference title race.

Regional track sets stage for records

Frusti and Bowen.
The regional champs, joined by those who finished second or third in any of the 16 events along with those who met qualifying times and performances set up by the Michigan High School Athletic Association will head for Flint Northwestern (Class A) on June 3rd to compete for the state championships.
Class B finalists will converge upon Marysville the same day to determine that division's state champs.
Koger, who started the season with an auspicious victory in the indoor Eastern Michigan University Huron Relays, equalled his winning performance in the high jump.

Also fourth was Tim Quaintance who leaped six-feet in the high jump. Bowen, in his senior year, proved he was the man to beat in the quarter as he pedaled his way to first place with a 50.1 performance.
Coach Bob Holmes' Patriots also qualified their 880-yard relay team with Kean, Paul Berry, Phil Frusti and Jeff Williams who were nosed out by Churchill's foursome at the wire. The winning time was recorded as 1:32.3. Franklin posted a 1:32.4.
Vaulteur Dave Kmet, a senior, finished second in his specialty when he went over the bar at 12 feet, 11. Garden City West's Geza Kogler won the event with a 13'6" effort. Unfortunately, Plymouth Salem's Scott Kappler who had cleared 14 feet, 8 inches earlier in the season, failed to make the opening height.
Holmes said he was satisfied at his team's performance but "was also hopeful that we'll be able to beat some of the teams that beat us in the regionals."

Dale Redick had the sixth best time in the high hurdles (15.3) for other Spartan places.
"I certainly didn't expect to qualify as many people as we did," said Coach Joe Grasley. "But these kids have been surprising me all season, so I guess I shouldn't be surprised at what they did at the regional."
Tecumseh won the Milan regional title with 37 points, followed by Robichaud (30) and Cherry Hill (19).
Plymouth Canton received an outstanding performance from junior sprinter Rich Fleisher who tied the school record in winning the regional title in the 220-yard dash. Fleisher was clocked in 23 seconds flat.
"Rich has outstanding potential," said Canton Coach Mike Tiano, "and the great thing about this is that he'll be back a year from now."
With the regional and dual meet season just about completed for most of the area schools, teams and athletes will turn their thoughts on league championships.

Glenn, Wayne gals earn crowns hurdles course, giving her a gold medal.

Miss Nibert cleared 5 feet, 6 inches, two inches short of her record-setting performance in the high jump a year ago, but good enough for a first place. She also was second (to Miss MacDougall) in the long jump, winding up with a 16 feet, 4 inch leap.
Coach Floyd Carter's mile relay team of Peggy Stevens, Terri Discher, Amy McBain and Colleen O'Brien was clocked in 4:16 which set a school record and enabled the Zebras to finish third, good enough to qualify for the state finals.

Kathy Weyand set a school record in the 2-mile run (12:11), while Patty Reighard, Preston, Debbie Franklin and Sonja Kozorski teamed up for a fifth place in the 440-yard relay.
The top three finishers in all of the events will advance to the state finals which will be held in Brighton on June 3.

"He came very close of making the height at 6 feet, 9 inches," related Dave Medley, Belleville's head coach. "His performances are coming along fine. We hope for another good effort at the state."
Blaha ran an excellent race in the two-mile and picked his spot and waited until the last lap to outduel Southfield High's Church who trailed in second with a 9:28.0 effort.
In the mile run, postponed because of a sudden storm and resumed after an hour's delay, Blaha and Churchill's Jones battled most of the way. Blaha managed to avenge an earlier loss to the Churchill senior.
Unfortunately, the state finals will be conducted the same day as Wayne's graduation exercises and "that may cause some problems," pointed out Wayne coach Ernie Righetti.
"There's nothing anyone can do about it," Righetti said, "things like this will happen, unfortunately. We're going to try to make the best of the situation."
Wayne also qualified Ron Mason who was forced to settle for second when he lost in a photo finish to Garden City East's Tim Phillips in the half-mile. Mason was clocked in 1:57.85, five-hundredth's of a second later than the first place Phillips.
A miscalculation in the handoff during the mile relay cost the Wayne team a ticket to the state finals. The Zebras, with Tim Dean, Mark Michalowski, Rog Reges and Mason in the lineup finished fourth in 3:32, missing by one place to qualify for state.

Though they failed to find their way into the winner's circle, defending Tri-River Conference champ qualified one of its largest contingents for the Class B state finals.
Sophomore Ramon Lara finished behind Riverside's Gerry Donakowski in both the two and one mile events. Donakowski, whose brother Bill is a standout with the University of Michigan cross country and track teams, scored an easy triumph in the two mile after touring the course in 9:31.0 Lara was second in 9:53.4.
The Spartans mile relay team of Tom Minor, John Ireland, Darryl Gallant and Scott Johnston also finished second behind Dearborn Heights Robichaud. Cherry Hill was clocked in 3:31.
The 440-yard relay lineup made up of Jim Eiben, Bob Norwood, Dale Redick and Ivy Gregory had the third best time at the regional held in Milan. The quartet was clocked in 44.6.
Minor, who finished third (39.2) in the 330-yard low hurdles, and Norwood, whose fifth place in the high hurdles wouldn't qualify him except for his time 15.1 (meets MHSAA standards for the event) also will compete in the state finals.
Gallant finished fourth in the 440-yard dash (52.5) and Mike Michno ran fifth in the mile (10:06.6) while

by Chet Kosin

The drive-train system in an automobile serves two functions: it transmits power from the engine to the drive wheels, and it varies the amount of turning force, or torque. The latter function is necessary because the engine alone does not produce enough torque at low speeds to put the car in motion from a stop. An assist is provided by two sets of gears in the drive train, the transmission and differential. The transmission sends power along a drive shaft to the differential gears. There, the torque is boosted and transmitted to the rear wheels, which drive the car.

The most challenging engine repair problems are solved in the fully-equipped machine shop at KOSIN'S AUTO PARTS, 26831 Michigan Ave., Inkster! Our experienced mechanics work on all types and sizes of engines including Diesel, automotive, agricultural, marine, motorcycle and industrial. All work is done on the premises and we offer fast, efficient and reasonably priced service. Do-it-yourselfers are invited to stop in for the parts and accessories you need for your car. Our knowledgeable staff is always happy to advise you on the proper materials for the job you want to do. Call KOSIN'S at 563-3894. We are open daily from 8 A.M. until 8 P.M., and on Saturdays until 5 P.M. Auto Tip: A shift to first speed locks a sleeve into the largest and most powerful gear.

Canfield cuts down Monroe, 6-1

6 teams in reach of first place in Great Lakes 8

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Sports Editor

The saying goes that in presidential elections as Maine goes, so does the nation.

And in Wayne, victory apparently rides on Jim Canfield's pitching arm.

The Wayne senior, acclaimed as one of the finest hurlers on the prep scene today, subdued league-leading Monroe 6-1 to toss the Great Lakes 8 Conference title race into a scramble.

"There are now at least six of the eight teams that are either a half or a game out of first place," said Wayne Coach Jim Chronowski. "It's going to be interesting to see how this all works out."

Canfield stretched his personal winning streak to seven games (he's 5-0 in the conference), struck out 15 (for the second time this year) and gave up three hits. He missed a shutout in the bottom of the seventh when the Trojans scored their only run.

Loser Tony Frey was touched up for five hits and gave up three runs in the seventh which ended Monroe's hope of keeping first place to itself. Frey's nemesis was Mark Korte who hammered a two-out homer in the third inning, then came through with a two-out, two-run single in the fifth which chased home Mark Zerna and Jerry Smart who had singled and got aboard on an error, respectively.

In the seventh, Frey took no chances and intentionally walked Korte, but Zerna came up with a hit, and Bob Nutt was safe on an error which paved the way for three runs.

Korte had a perfect day, going three for three while Zerna got the other two.

This is a crucial week for Chronowski and his Zebras. They were scheduled to meet Ann Arbor Pioneer Tuesday night in the qualifying round of the Class A playoffs. The winner will compete for the district title at Ypsilanti.

A makeup game with Lincoln Park on Tuesday, at home to Riverview on Thursday and a date with Taylor Center at home on Friday should tell Chronowski just where his team stands in the conference race after the week is over.

By the way, if the Zebras survive their test with Pioneer, they would play Saturday in the pre-district game.

Franklin bobbles away first

Livonia Franklin literally bobbled its chances to stay in front of the Northwest Suburban baseball pack last week. And Coach Ron Hellier probably thought it was some sort of optical illusion, but when he counted the errors his Patriots made against North Farmington he could only sigh.

"We committed eight errors in the first game," Hellier announced, "and how do you play over that?"

Against a lesser team Franklin may have gotten away with it, however, North, also craving for the conference championship, "didn't do anything wrong" and swept a crucial two game series from the Livonians.

North capitalized on those eight bobbles to win the opener 6-0 behind Dave Weyher's two-hitter. They came back in the nightcap to win in extra innings, 1-0. Again Franklin helped in its own demise by miffing the ball twice.

The two important wins place North at the head of the standings with an 8-1 record, while Franklin, with a 7-3 mark, has a mathematical chance of catching up, but will need help from the field.

In the opener, Jeff Aguzzi went the distance, struck out five and walked four. He was charged with the loss, while Weyher gave up a seventh inning double to Chris Baker who was stranded on third after Ron Reeter's single.

Weyher had a no-hitter going for him until then.

Jeff Sergison lost a pitcher's duel in the nightcap as North struck for the winning run in the ninth on a single by Art Salinas, a walk to Greg Hughes and a game-winning single by Ron Fredericks.

"It was a disappointing week," Hellier commented. "We lost to an excellent team, but we lost."

Earlier Franklin swept a pair from league rival, Thurston. Jim Kuzara scattered six hits in six innings and received relief help from Ken Webster as the Patriots put down the Eagles 3-2 in the first game.

In the nightcap, leftahnder Craig Jones struck out five, walked three in his first start to card a 4-1 victory over Thurston.

Franklin scored two runs in the first inning in the opening game on Kuzara's walk, a sacrifice by DeYonker, a walk to Baker and Reeter's triple. The picked up an insurance run in the seventh on a single by John Mazurek, who was doubled home by Ron Schwab.

DeYonker tripled and singled in the second game and Baker had a pair of singles and an RBI in the nightcap.

Last Friday, Franklin played in the Midland Tournament where it dropped a 6-4 decision to Midland Dow and was eliminated. They played Canton in a consolation game and won the rain-delayed duel 4-3. Canton had tied it up at 4-all in the top of the seventh when the rains came and the game stopped. The score was reverted back to the last complete inning and Franklin had the edge, 4-3.

Novick doesn't let harness victories go to his head

Wayne resident, Mike Novick has won over 1,000 races in his 15 year career as a harness reinsman, but he hasn't let it go to his head. Mike is one of those rare individuals who quietly goes about his work, driving and training harness horses, always giving his best effort with very little fanfare.

Novick came out of the Canadian Soo in the early 60's to serve his racing apprenticeship with Elwood McMurray on the competitive Michigan fair circuit. He learned quickly, obtaining his pari-mutuel license in 1963, and soon became recognized as one of the top handlers in the harness racing business.

Like everybody else in Sault St. Marie, Mike spent his high school years playing hockey. The 5' 10", 140 lb. Novick considered hockey as a career choice, but figured that with his diminutive size he would be better off finding another profession. He started to help his uncle, Charles McLoud who was the president of the local turf club, and before long he was training horses at the Sault Ste. Marie fairgrounds.

The 38-year-old transplanted Canadian now makes his home in

MIKE NOVICK

Wayne with his attractive wife Sally and their three children Mike, 14, John, 12, and Debbie, 10. The boys are very active in wrestling so Mike spends most of his free time from the track traveling various tournaments around the state.

Mike pinpoints the highlights of his career as winning six races on one night's program at Windsor

Raceway, his 1:57.3 victory behind Rob Ron Robbie, winning four divisions of the Michigan Colt Stakes at Hazel Park in 1973 with Admiral Anne, Dodge Acres Ella, Photo Time, and Count Kef, but he places his six sub-two minute wins with Miss Easy Direct last year at Wolverine Raceway as the most thrilling.

The Miss Easy Direct story is an exciting one but unfortunately it had to end on a sad and tragic note.

The mare was owned by Novick and his long time partner Lloyd Henderson, of Windsor. The four-year-old distaffer began her winning ways on April 30th with a 1:59.3 clocking and finished up with a 1:59.1 on June 25th for what still stands as a Wolverine track record. The streak pushed her season's earnings almost to the 60,000 mark for 1977, but just a few months later through some freak accident Miss Easy Direct injured one of her legs while in her stall. Despite the opinions of several vets and the trying of many different remedies, an infection spread through the mare and could not be contained.

Henderson and Novick were grief stricken. Novick had to make a very painful decision to put the top flight mare away and save her from any further suffering.

Mike is now racing at Wolverine Raceway and currently has twelve horses under his care. To watch Novick in action is to know that the hockey worlds loss was truly the harness worlds gain.

Legion schedules baseball tryouts

With the high school baseball season winding down, the first call for American Legion ball players is being made by Wayne Post 111.

Ball players, ages 18 and under, are urged to report for tryouts at 6:30 p.m. at Westland John Glenn field, on Wednesday, May 31.

"We'd like to get a look at all of the players in the area who are eligible for Legion ball," said Norm Hoenes who coached Wayne Post 111's entry last year.

"If a player can't make it to the tryout on that date, please have him contact me at the high school," Hoenes added.

Ameen makes champ sweat

Exhibition confrontation sparks cliffhanger

Most of us only dream of reaching a height in sports and athletics where we can challenge a world champ.

But for Bob Ameen, a member of the Associated Newspapers' editorial staff who just happens to be a professional three-cushion player with 30 years seniority and a winner of the United States Open in the sport (1971), the dream came true recently.

Ameen failed this year to qualify for the world's tournament held the first part of May in Las Vegas.

But, as luck would have it, the winner of the world's tournament, Raymond Ceulemans of Belgium, not only this year but for the past 15 of 16 years, came through the Detroit area on an exhibition tour and Ameen was one of those who was singled out to play Ceulemans.

Ceulemans is regarded as the greatest billiard player in the history of the sport. Many rate him above the legendary cue artists of the past including the legendary Willie Hoppe.

But, Ameen was faced with one of the toughest challenges of his life: he had to play the champion on an imported Japanese billiard table which he was unfamiliar with and which Ceulemans had won the world's championship on in Tokyo last year.

The Cushion 'n' Cue, scene of the exhibition and the largest billiard room in the Detroit Metropolitan area, bought the table a year ago right after the Tokyo competition ended and installed it on their premises.

Ray Abrams, owner of the room in Oak Park and other rooms in Allen Park, Livonia and Waterford, fell in love with the far superior Japanese table when he witnessed the world tournament in Tokyo. So he had it shipped to Oak Park.

Because the Japanese table played so much differently than American tables—sharper angles and faster cushions—many of the top American players, including Ameen, chose not to practice on it for fear of harming their play in tournaments held in this country.

So, Ameen practiced a few hours prior to playing Ceulemans in an effort to familiarize himself with its play. He knew that several weeks actually was needed, but he figured that some practice was better than none at all.

Ameen scheduled to play the world champion Wednesday, third and the final day of the champ's three-day stay in Oak Park. Monday, he saw the champion make mincemeat out of Luis Campos of Chicago, a top-ranked American player who recently came to the United States from Mexico. He drubbed the Mexican 60-39.

Tuesday night, Ceulemans ripped Mike Donnelly of Monroe, Michigan, another top American competitor, by the score of 60-36 in 35 innings. (A billiard per inning is considered excellent play.)

In Las Vegas, Ceulemans had established a multitude of records, including an amazing 1,679 billiards per inning average that wiped all previous records from the books.

In all fairness to the great American players of the past, the European rules under which contemporary world tournaments are played do not permit safety play as done in years past, thus increasing a player's average by a considerable margin.

In the first two games at Las Vegas, Ceulemans had demolished two of American's best three-cushion artists—"Boston Shorty" Johnson of Somerville, Mass., and Frank Torres of Los Angeles, Calif. "Shorty" amassed the grand total of 10 points to the champs' 60, while Torres succumbed 60-14.

In sweeping to his first two victories, the Belgian scored 120 points in a phenomenal 53 innings, considerably more than two billiards per inning and eclipsing the average for any two consecutive games ever played.

When Ameen stepped up to play Ceulemans on his own type of equipment, knowing how badly the champion had wiped out all of his opposition and realizing his own potential, he had no idea how many points he would tally against the billiard's master. He did know one thing, though: he was going to play his darnest to upset the international figure.

Imagin Ameen's surprise and that of the world's champ when after the first few innings, he had moved into the lead 19-6. The Belgian then poured on the steam, left Ameen so safely behind that he the local artist failed to score in 11 consecutive innings. While Ceulemans began to score rapidly, recording runs of 9, 8, and 8, Ameen knew he was in trouble, but kept plugging away. He failed to run over four in any inning, but he was making billiards at a faster and more consistent pace.

At the end, Ceulemans registered his 60 billiards ion a commendable 49 innings, while Ameen ended with 49 points, more than any of the previous challengers. Ameen's average of one per inning against such a formidable player earned for him a round of applause and the respect of the world champ.

Salem edged Redford Union 3-2 in the 10th as Doug Holloway went the distance, gave up seven hits, fanned seven and walked two to earn credit for the victory.

In the 10th, Sam Merrill singled, Bob Waite walked and a wild pitch moved up both runners. Another wild pitch resulted in the winning run.

Salem got on the board in the sixth after singles by John Lewelling and Merrill, followed by a walk to Waite and Dave Wilcox. In the seventh, Lewelling's fly ball to right field was dropped, allowing Goodsir to score. Goodsir had gotten aboard on a single and moved to second after a walk.

Belleville was no match for the Rocks last Monday as the Tigers succumbed 12-2 to Piper who gave up two hits in five innings of work. Waite, Etienne, Goodsir and Piper each had two hits with Goodsir counting three RBIs for the game.

Stan Price was charged with the loss. He lost the job to reliever Mark Shelp in the fifth.

Start of something good

Picking up momentum after beating Fordson, Wayne Memorial has maneuvered within reach of first place in the Great Lakes 8 Conference thanks to a 6-1 triumph over Monroe. Six teams are now within a game of first place as the action heads into the final week. Above, Wayne's Greg Stano glances over at a bobbled ball during the Fordson game. He contributed two hits in the victory.

Ostrander signs with Ferris State

Mike Ostrander, a 6-3, 205-pound former Wayne Memorial griddler, is among the six additional athletes who have signed letters of intent to play football at Ferris State College.

Ostrander, an All-Area, All-Metro West offensive guard is expected to help the Bulldogs' title ambitions. Mike will be able to show his skills when the fall football drills open Aug. 24 in preparation for the season.

Ferris will open the 1978 campaign Sept. 9 against St. Joseph's (Indiana).

Coach Nick Coso labelled this year's crop of new players as, "the best crop of athletes Ferris has ever recruited in football."

Area tennis teams meet 'Waterloo'

It just wasn't in the books for area prep tennis teams which found their "Waterloo" at the regionals over the past weekend.

All of the area teams were wiped out at the regionals as Livonia Stevenson won the title at the Class A tournament held at Plymouth Salem and Grosse Ile emerged the winner at the Class B tournament which the Islanders hosted.

Todd Beyer, Wayne Memorial's premier player, came back from a leg injury to reach the semi-finals of the No. 1 singles but lost in his bid to reach the state finals in three sets, 6-4, 7-5 and 6-3.

Hobbling on a sprained ankle which kept him out of Coach Jack Armstrong's lineup most of the last two weeks, Beyer managed to struggle through the tournament as college scouts viewed his play.

"There was a great deal of pressure on Todd and I think he handled it commendably under the circumstances," Armstrong related. "He has been off with a sprained ankle and was limping badly after the match at the regionals. I don't think he'll have to worry about signing with a college, after all, they know what he can do when he's 100 percent."

Meanwhile, Monroe apparently has hammered down the Great Lakes 8 Conference championship by winning the league tournament.

The defending champs had 28 points while Wyandotte was runner-up with 19, followed by Riverview (18), Wayne and Fordson, each with 15, and Lincoln Park, with seven.

The dual meet league schedule, delayed by rains, isn't complete but it is doubtful that the rest of the league teams can stop the fleeing Trojans.

Why the "Light Bill" became the "Electric Bill"

It's simple. Back in the 1930s lights accounted for nearly all of the electricity used in your home. But as times changed and convenient, modern appliances were invented, lights became a much smaller part of your total electric costs. And today, with frost-free refrigerators, air conditioners, furnace blowers and ranges, lights actually account for less than 20% of the electricity you use. That's why proper use and maintenance of major appliances is so important. The more efficiently these big energy users operate, the more economical they'll be. And that can save a lot of money and a lot of energy. Detroit Edison can tell you how to get the most out of the major appliances in your home. So call or stop in at any Detroit Edison customer office for helpful information. Save where it really counts. The power is in your hands.

RUSTPROOFING FACTS (AND SOME CURRENT FICTION)

FICTION: Some car manufacturers are now using anti-corrosion materials and methods that eliminate the need for rustproofing.

FACT: Every 1977 car requires rustproofing protection after it leaves the factory. Every rust-prone area in a car must be protected to assure real rustproof protection.

FACT: Ziebart Rustproofing offers the protection of an exclusive process that has proven its effectiveness in preventing rust-through. Over two million satisfied customers can't be wrong.

FICTION: Car dealers can now offer rustproofing that is the equivalent of Ziebart rustproofing.

FACT: Only an authorized Ziebart Dealer can use the amazing Ziebart sealant that actually penetrates welded seams to get in where rust can begin.

FACT: Only an authorized Ziebart Dealer can use the nine patented spray tools designed to reach every hidden or boxed-in area where rust can get a foothold.

Separate the facts from the fiction and you'll find the only place to get real rustproof protection for your new car is from your Ziebart Dealer. He's the expert with the experience.

MEMORY JOGGER: have you ever made out the weekly shopping list, gone shopping and then discover you've forgotten a number of things? I used to do this all the time, and in order to eliminate those costly extra trips to the store I developed the Memory Jogger. The Jogger lists almost every type of item found in the average supermarket. The items are arranged into 14 convenient categories such as Household Cleaners and Supplies, Dairy and Meat Products, Baking and Cooking Supplies, etc. The Jogger is printed in two colors on heavy white paper stock, and plastic coated on both sides for long life. To obtain your copy send 25 cents plus 15 cents postage to: Reader Hale Associates, Box 783, Wayne, MI 48184.

BUYING A HOME MAKES THINGS HAPPEN, TOO.

There's the satisfaction of living in a place that belongs to you...

...cash savings from the tax deductions you're taking now, and equity you're building for later...

So home ownership is more than an American dream. It's a practical, positive, American way of life. Talk to a REALTOR® about buying a home. REALTORS® are real estate professionals, trained to help you decide where to buy, what to buy, and how much you can really afford to spend.

All over America, enterprising people are making home ownership happen. To be one of them, call a REALTOR® today.

Introducing
51,000 Experts.

That's how many REALTORS® are working to help you in everything from finding a home to getting the most for your money. In the U.S. and Canada. And that's why you can rely on a REALTOR® to help you with the most important decision of your life. And we're proud to be a part of it.
